Uncle Sam Says

Once again we salute our Newspaper boys, honoring their thrift and enterprise. Nearly 500,000 of these boys are carrying on that sense of duty and responsibility which brings the papers to our door every day in the year. These nephews of mine are training for success, and a part of that training is in thrift. Last year, newspaper boys enrolled in Newspaper Thrift Clubs invested $2,000,000 in U. S. Savings Bonds. These bonds will pay them $4 for every $3 invested ten years hence. Every bond is guaranteed as the safe-sure investment for everyone.

Marriage

On Wednesday morning, August 11, 1948, Miss Ruth Tiede, daughter of Mrs. Joanah Tiede and the late Walter Tiede of Berlin, Germany, and Cpl. Gardner Sanderson of the U. S. Army, in Germany, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sanderson of Beulaville, were united in marriage in Berlin in a quiet ceremony by a German constable. The bride was attired in a lovely green dress carrying a bridal bouquet of pin roses. Several relatives of the bride and friends were present and the mother of the bride entertained at a reception after the ceremony. Mrs. Sanderson received her education at a boarding school in Austria in 1939, and in 1940 she went to high school in Yugoslavia, and in 1945 returned home to her parents in Berlin where she studied music.

Cpl. Sanderson received his education in the Beulaville Schools and served for several years in the U. S. Army with active duty overseas. He received his discharge after returning to Ft. Bragg on Oct. 27, 1948.

Ruth, 20, a very attractive, brown eyed brunette, speaks English fluently, and has a charming personality. She related that she met her husband in September, 1946 in an Enlisted Men's Club in Berlin. Her mother now resides in Berlin. Her father died in April, 1947. She told of seeing actual air raids and that war experiences were terrible.

The couple sailed from Bremerhaven, Germany on Sept. 30 on the Transport General Sultan, and landed in Brooklyn, N. Y. on Oct. 2.

They stayed in New York City for several days where Mrs. Sanderson was amazed at the light, the tall buildings, and the many cars which traveled so fast both ways.

Her first impression of the American people was how kind they treated her, and the great liberty of freedom of speech. She likes the Americans, and said that they made her feel at home as though they had known her all her life.

She has no sisters, and the only brother, an adopted cousin, was killed during the war.

Church met on Saturday, Oct. 30. Approximately 500 attended. Members of the local church served a picnic lunch with barbecue.

The Vocal Union was held Sunday with choirs from several of the churches participating; with a quartet from Sarecta and the Taylor Quartet of Whaley's Chapel. Choir leader was Eugene Exum and the pianist was Mrs. Grover Hill, both of Beulaville. Special music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thigpen of Beulaville. The Rev. Westley Price of Mt. Olive delivered the 11 a.m. sermon. A picnic lunch was served on the grounds. Approximately 600 people were present.

WOW Lodge Entertains

The Hickory Camp WOW No. 935 entertained the members and wives at a barbecue supper in the school lunchroom Friday evening, Oct. 15. All enjoyed the get-together.

Circle Meets

The Young Ladies Circle of the WMU met with Mrs. Marian Bratcher on Oct. 25. Mrs. Cecil Miller led the devotional. Taking part on

Sneak Attacks

These facts show us that the business of advertising has an important bearing upon our freedom of press. If we cherish freedom of the press, we must also respect our publications as business enterprises. We need to understand that expenses of gathering news from all over the world for American readers are paid in large part by revenues from advertising space.

I say these things because there are those who attack the American way by the sneak method. These destroyers (from within and without) will not attack freedom of the press. They know we cherish it. But they will attack advertising. They will not attack our high standards of living, which they envy. But they will attack the profit idea, without which American initiative and enterprise would cease to give us jobs and goods. May we ever be on our guard against those who would knock out the very props from under America!

the program were Mesdames Orzo Thigpen Bud Miller and Bratcher. The hostess served coca colas, nuts, mints and cookies. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clinton Campbell.

FHA Installation

An installation and initiation service for the FHA was held here Friday, Oct. 29. Officers installed were Mary Grace Jones, Pres.; Janice Bostic, Vice Pres.; Jacqueline Williams, Secty.; Jane Bostic, Treas.; Wilma Brinson, Hist.; Calest Thigpen, Parl.; Lois Hall, Reporter, and Betty Jo Horne, Recording Chmn. Candles were used to represent the Home Ec Dept. and the purpose of the organization. The table was decorated with the chapter flower, red roses.
