Jr. Chamber Of Commerce; Warsaw

A Junior Chamber of Commerce for Warsaw was organized Thursday evening with 24 charter members, sponsored by the Clinton Jr. Chamber of Commerce.

Mitchell Britt, a member of the law firm of Britt and Holland, who recently moved to Warsaw was made president. Other officers include Bill Sheffield and Sam Godwin, vice presidents; Maurice Holland, Secretary, and J. F. Strickland, Treasurer; members of the board of directors are Arthur Apple, J. J. Armstrong, Mitchell Britt, Bill Sheffield, Sam Godwin, Maurice Holland and J. F. Strickland.

A Jr. Chamber of Commerce is an organization of young business men under 37 years of age, and has as its principal objects the growth and progress of the community in which it serves.

The Clinton Jaycees, sponsors of the Warsaw Jaycees, is a good example of the push which the organization puts into a town. This organization is alert to the needs and is out front pushing to get things done for the improvement of the town.

The local organization will meet on Thursday evenings and invites the support of all citizens.

Humphrey-Wright

In a simple and informal wedding on Saturday afternoon, November sixth, at three o'clock in the Warsaw Baptist Church, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Humphrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Humphrey, of Warsaw, was married to David Ralph Wright, r., of Canton, son of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Wright, Sr., of Wilkesboro and Ridgecrest. The Rev. G. Van Stephens, pastor of the bride officiated and used the double ring service of the Baptist ritual.

The vows were spoken before a background of kentia palms, California woodwards, entwined with Southern smilax and laurel roping. On either side and centering the altar were column baskets holding giant Indianapolis white bridal chrysanthemums and wrought iron candelabra holding burning cathedral tapers.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. C. J. Brown, at the Hammond console and Mr. E. B. Peterson, tenor soloist. Mrs. Brown's selections included "Salut d'Armour" by Elgar; "Romance" by Rubenstein; "Cantilene Nuptial" by Du bois; and Godard's "Berceuse" from opera De Thais by Massenet was softly played and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore for her wedding a white flannel suit and matching felt hat with black suede accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with purple throated orchid with draping tuberose on white streamers.

Miss Rebecca Best, of Warsaw was maid of honor and wore a royal blue dress with matching hat and black accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mesdames Margery Thomas of Warsaw and Goldsboro, Eva Belle Kornegay, of Warsaw, Frances Newman, Tryon, Martha Smith, Jellico, Tenn. and Wallace; and Marie Wilson, of Oxford.

Mrs. Humphrey, mother of the bride, wore a taupe crepe dress with wine accessories and an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Wright wore a grey suit with black accessories and shoulder corsage of purple orchid.

John Wright, of State College, Raleigh, was his brother's best man and ushers were Arthur Lee Humphrey, brother of the bride, Henry West, Elbert Matthis, of Warsaw and Thomas R. Privett of Portsmouth, Va.

The bride received her education in the Warsaw Schools, Campbell College, Buies Creek, and was graduated from Flora Macdonald College in Red Springs with the class of 1948 and degree in Bible and Social Science. Throughout college she was active in Baptist Student work and was a member of the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly staff the summer of 1948.

The groom was educated at Davidson College and State College, receiving his B. S. degree in Chemical Engineering in 1947. He served three years with the U. S. Army in the Pacific and now holds a responsible position with the Champion Paper and Fiber Co. in Canton.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a brief wedding trip and after Nov. 15 will be at home at 56 Newfound St. Canton, N. C.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wright, Sr., and Mrs. C. C. Glass and daughters, Carol and Laura Catherine, of Wilkesboro; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Humphrey and Miss Peggy Humphrey of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hancock of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Jennie Privett, Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Vera Hamilton, Concord; Miss Mildred Hamilton, Raeford; Mr. and Mrs.

Emil James, Rose Hill; Mrs. G. L. Brown, Mrs. Elmore Jenkins, Mrs. H. L. Potter, Misses June and Emily Potter, and Miss Martha Smith of Wallace; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kilburn, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Humphrey and Miss Sue Boone of Wilmington; Rebecca Best, and Henry West, of Wake Forest; Arthur Lee Humphrey, John Wright and Thomas Privett, Raleigh; Miss Frances Newman, ryon; Miss Margery Thomas, Goldsboro; Miss Marie Wilson, Oxford; Mrs. Annie Greene, Concord.

CAKE CUTTING

Immediately following the rehearsal of the wedding on Friday evening, Miss Rebecca Best entertained at a cake cutting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Best, on Hill St. Throughout the home were lovely arrangements of chrysanthemums and candles. The guests were met at the door by Mesdames F. J. Thomas and L. H. Brown and shown to the living room and dining room by Mesdames Gilmer Beck and Paul Sharpe. The dining table, overlaid with a hand-some lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and burning tapers. On one end was a three tiered wedding cake and on the other was the punch bowl. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice Mrs. A. L. Humphrey continued and Misses Rebecca Best and Helen West served. Mrs. Purcell Jones of Chapel Hill and Miss Mary Hester Powell poured punch. Guests were invited into the music room by Mrs. B. W. Pickett and asked to register in the bride's book by Mrs. C. W. Surratt. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. G. S. Best, mother of the hostesses.

WEDDING RECEPTION
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Humphrey, parents of the bride, entertained at a wedding reception at 12:30 on Saturday. Throughout the home were lovely and artistic arrangements of flowers. In the dining room, the bride's table, overlaid with an exquisite imported linen cloth, was centered with chrysanthemums and on either end were bridal tapers in twin crystal holders. Tapers throughout the home were tied with a miniature corsage.

Covers were laid for 32, including the wedding party and out-of-town guests and a tempting three course turkey dinner was served. Assisting with the serving were Miss Sue Boone, and Mesdames O. H. Best, L. S. Whittle, G. Van Stephens, Stacy Britt and Doris Peeler.
