The PTA held their meeting on Monday night with Mrs. Zollie Korngay in charge of the devotional and members of the Health Dept. were present and spoke briefly. Attendance prize was won by Mrs. Katie Rowell's 2nd grade, Miss Bessie Korngay's 7th grade and Miss Mattox's in the high school.

Harvest Festival Huge Success

The Harvest Festival held at the B. F. Grady school Thursday night was quite a success. With pigs for the barbecue being donated and donation from so many merchants, there was very little expense. The primary, grammar and high school grades each put a play for entertainment. Cakes were auctioned off by James Parker, a tobacco auctioneer, which brought a tidy sum. About $1,000 was realized after all expenses were taken out.

WS of CS

Mrs. W. J. Smith was hostess to the WS of CS at her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Jones presided and Mrs. L. H. Turner presented the program. The hostess served hot chocolate and cookies.

The Seal that lives . . . and lets live

Christmas Seals live throughout the year . . . make possible 365 days of tuberculosis education, X-ray examination, patient rehabilitation and medical research.

The result? Since 1907 it is estimated that they have helped save an average of ninety thousand lives a year.

As always, the 1949 program of the tuberculosis associations will be financed by your purchase of Christmas Seals. So please, take just a moment — send in your contribution today.

Hair beauty secrets . . . by Toni

The New York Times Fashion Show has wonderful news! It's the new short hair-do with the soft, short, half bangs that lend such charm to the oval face. The basis is a soft, natural looking home permanent, curled on the hair ends. It is equally attractive for informal or formal wear, as illustrated.

YOUNG FOLKS MEET

The Young Folks of Unity Methodist Church met Friday night at the church. Explaining the meaning of "Youth Fellowship", was the subject. After the meeting refreshments were served at the home of Miss Helen Grace Boone.
