Kontract Klub

Mrs. F. W. McGowen was hostess to the members of the Kenansville Kontract Klub Wednesday night with all members present. Christmas decorations were used throughout the room in which the tables were in play and an exchange of gifts was enjoyed. At the conclusion of play, Mrs. J. B. Wallace was awarded high score prize and the hostess remembered everyone with a lovely handkerchief. Mrs. McGowen, assisted by Mrs. J. O. Stokes, served tempting Christmas tree salad.

Sewing Club

Friday night, Mrs. F. W. Mc-

Gowen was hostess to the BMG Sewing Club with fourteen present. After the usual sewing bee, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Gavin, served a congealed salad course. Each present was given a pretty handkerchief and an exchange of gifts was enjoyed.

Bridge Hostess

Miss Martha Pickett was hostess Thursday evening to her bridge club. Novelty Christmas scenes and arrangements were used throughout the room and gifts were exchanged. At the conclusion Mrs. Louise Mitchell was awarded high score prize and Miss Erma Williams second high. The hostess served a tempting frozen dessert.

Christmas Pageant

An attractive Christmas Pageant was presented at Grove Presbyterian Church Sunday night, with members of the three Churches in Kenansville participating. The

"Shepherd Story" was given with Rev. J. G. Morrison and son Joe, Jr. taking the part of the shepherd and the shepherd's son, the rest of the scenes being pantomimed. Little

Misses Millie Oates and Frances Lee Stroud were Angels and Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Sharpe represented Mary and Joseph. The Wise Men were: Messrs. J. B. Stroud, C. J. Murphy, and Bill Ingram, Jr. The shepherds were: Lawrence

Southerland, Jr., Ivy Bowden and Robert Franklin Williamson. The Junior and Senior Choirs of the three churches furnished music. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Louise Mitchell and Miss Erma Williams.

Eastern Star Holds Christmas Party

The Eastern Star held its regular meeting Tuesday night, Dec. 14. Mrs. Theima Stroud presided. The members enjoyed the 4 new gas heaters that have recently been installed by the local chapter.

After the business session, Mrs. Matoaka Westbrook gave an interesting Christmas program and the members exchanged gifts. The refreshment committee served fruit cake, nuts and coffee. The Chapter room was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Personals

Miss Jean Tyndall of Rex Hospital was home for the week end. Miss Janet Boney of Peace College, Miss Cornelia Quinn of W. U. N. C., N. B. Boney, of U. N. C., Lawrence Southerland, Jr., and Bill Ingram, Jr. of State College are visiting their respective families for the holidays. Jack Williams of Wilmington spent the week end in Kenansville. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craft spent the week end with her father, G. R. Dall.

Miss Margaret Williams and Mrs. D. H. McKay shopped in Kinston Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Wilbur Adame and children are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams.

Hope, Love and Peace . . . the true splendor of Christmas. Let us make those words live . . . with an open door . . . a warm handclasp . . . a gift token of the Day, a ringing of Merry Greetings and most important of all . . . attendance at Church.
