Hanson - Thomas Rites Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Ann Prator Thomas, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Russ, and daughter of Mark H. Thomas, of Spartanburg, S. C., and the late Mrs. Fannie Monroe Thomas, of Warsaw, and Louis Andrew Hanson, of Wilmington was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church in Warsaw. The ceremony was performed by the uncle of the bridegroom, Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pa.

The church was decorated with palms, woodwardia ferns, southern smilax and two large standards filled with white gladioli, snapdragons and white chrysanthemums. Three seven-branched candelabra held white candles and the family pews were marked with white satin ribbons and clusters of calla lilies.

Mrs. Clarence Brown, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music while the guests were assembling and during the ceremony. Emory Grubbs, soloist, of Wilmington, sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." The traditional procession by Wagner from Lohengrin and the wedding march by Mendelssohn were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Joseph C. Russ, wore a white duchess satin gown fashioned with a net yoke and wide bertha embroidered in seed pearls and sequins. The sleeves were long and extended in calla points over the hands. The skirt was very full and finished with a double bustle effect. She wore a full length veil of French bridal illusion outlined with pearls; and carried a bouquet of white orchids, carnations and bouvardia showered with dainty old time hyacinths.

The bride had as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Frances Monroe Thomas. She wore a gown of white faille taffeta with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt over hoops, and long white matching mitts. She carried an arm bouquet of red carnations and wore matching arrangement in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Miss Betty Hanson, sister of the groom, Miss Katherine Gardner, Miss Mary B. an, Miss Mary Middleton, Mrs. Lloyd Joyner and Mrs. Grady Crabtree wore identical gowns of white faille and carried identical bouquets.

Richard B. Hanson, brother of the groom, attended as best man. Ushers were John Lowmore, Graham Barefoot, Jack Peterson, Dick Dannelly, Fred Block and Billy Tood, of Wilmington.

Mrs. Russ, grandmother of the bride, wore a black sheer crepe gown trimmed in silver sequins, a black and blue hat, long blue gloves and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Hanson, mother of the groom, wore an ice blue chiffon gown, matching hat and a lavender orchid corsage. Mrs. Katherine E. Vollers, grandmother of the groom, wore a beaver color crepe and lace gown, lime colored hat and green orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride. The house was charitably decorated throughout with white flowers and white candles. The guests were seated at tables by Mrs. J. F. Torrans, hostess. Beautiful receiving line by Mrs. Ben Bowden. Mrs. Wayne Jordan of Wallace, directed to the dining room, where Mrs. B. C. Sheffield, Jr. received. The table, laid with an imported lace cloth, was centered with a silver bowl holding white chrysanthemums and snapdragons, flanked by silver holders with white candles. At one end was the three-tiered wedding cake, which was cut with the family sword by the bride and groom. At the opposite end of the table was a silver punch bowl, presided over by Mrs. Walter P. Bridgers. Bridal cakes and ices were served by Misses Margery Thomas, Anne Huie, Bertha Fulford and Mrs. Johnny Mallard. Mrs. Graham Monroe directed to the gift room, where Miss Lenora Womack and Mrs. Lena Carlton received. Mrs. J. W. Straughan directed to the living room, where Mrs. James Middleton presided at the register.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hanson left for a southern wedding trip. For traveling she wore a green wool and satin costume with bronze accessories; she completed her costume with the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Peace College in Raleigh and for the past three years has held a position as secretary with the White Lumber Company in Wilmington.

Mr. Hanson attended The Citadel in Charleston, S. C. and served in the U. S. Army overseas during World War II. He is associated in the Spiritine Chemical Co. business with his father.

They will be at home at Wrightsville Beach. Among out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Schenck, and Miss Mary Lou Hanson of Greensboro; M. H. Thomas and family, father of the bride, from Spartanburg, S. C.; Miss Bertha Fulford, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wardlaw of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moore of Fayetteville; Mrs. Ellen C. Monroe and James Monroe of Elizabethtown; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hanson, Southport; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mathis, Durham; James C. Howley, Bristol, Conn.; Mrs. Nellie Thomas, Rocky Mount; Miss Betty Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hanson and family, Mrs. Katharine E. Vollers, Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Bremer and Mrs. W. Bremer, Sr. of Wilmington; and Richard V. Hanson of Chapel Hill.

On Friday evening prior to the rehearsal, Mrs. L. A. Hanson, mother of the groom, entertained at a turkey supper at 8 o'clock at Mitchell's Cafe for the wedding party and out of town guests. The private dining room was attractively decorated in green and white.

Immediately following the rehearsal the wedding party and out of town guests were entertained informally by Miss Mary Middleton and her mother, Mrs. W. J. Middleton at their home. Bridal arrangements were used in the home and wedding cakes, mints, nuts, and punch were served. Mrs. Lloyd Joyner of Wilmington poured punch and during the evening Miss Nell Bruchhaus delightfully entertained at the piano.

On Saturday morning at eleven o'clock Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russ, grandparents of the bride, entertained out of town guests at Mitchell's Restaurant.

WITH THE SICK
 Slight improvement is noted in the condition of Mrs. A. J. Strickland, who is recuperating from a recent operation.

Mrs. Annie S. Greene of Concord is recuperating in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Britt. She sustained a fractured arm in an accident last week.

Mrs. G. W. Rollins is now able to be out having been confined to her home last week.

Mrs. Lewis Mullen has been down with the flu.

Warsaw And Kenansville Ladies Organize BPW Club

Monday evening, Jan. 17 in the private dining room at Mitchell's Restaurant about 50 business and professional women met for the purpose of organizing a Business and Professional Woman's Club.

Through the efforts of the Clinton Chapter, sponsors, the young club will soon receive a charter. Representatives presented facts about the federation, its purpose, the extension of opportunities to improve professional status of women, etc. The BPW is the largest organized group of business and professional women in the United States.

A nominating committee was appointed and the following officers duly elected: Pres. Mrs. Robert L. West; 1st Vice Pres. Mrs. Colon Holland; 2nd Vice Pres. Mrs. J. W. Farrior; Secty. Mrs. Milton West; Treas. Mrs. Doreas Rogers; and Corresponding Secty. Miss Grace Reville, all of Warsaw except Mrs. Colon Holland who is from Kenansville.

Among the group were business ladies represented were stenographers, secretaries, beauticians, teachers, clerks, social workers, librarians, caterer, telephone operators, nurses, newspaper reporters, and others.

Third Monday of each month was designated as the regular meeting night. The next meeting - Feb. 21 at Mitchell's and all professional and business women in Warsaw and Kenansville are invited to attend.

PTA Meeting

The PTA met Tuesday evening, Jan. 17 with Mrs. M. A. Smith in the chair. Miss Helen Brown led the group singing after which Mrs. H. R. Hipp presented the devotional. Following which Mrs. Smith stressed the importance of cooperation between parents and teachers. A grand total of 22 children were represented at the meeting, a meritorious parents, or mothers, no ing programs for the benefit of the community. So far they have been outstanding and will continue to be so. PTA meeting time is each third Tuesday - a date to be remembered and given to your child and community. Will You Be There On Tuesday Night, Feb. 18?

During business, Mrs. Fred Baars reported that the temporary stage in the hall of the grammar school will soon be ready for use. As perhaps lots of parents don't know - grammar pupils, in the past, had no access to any sort of stage performance. It is suggested that an opera be put on by the tots. No doubt these children never heard of an opera, but they would benefit by one.

Make a date with your child to attend the next PTA meeting - Feb. 15.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bennett have returned from an extensive southern tour in Florida and Cuba. They took their son Cadel George Bennett back to Brevard de Military Academy winter quarters at Holliston, Fla. after his Christmas vacation.
