Kenansville News

Auxiliary

The Auxiliary met in the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon with the president Mrs. A. T. Outlaw presiding. Mrs. Mary Southland conducted the devotional which was tied in with the program on Stewardship which was given by Mrs. Caroline Gavin. After the business a report of the nominating committee was given by the chairman, Mrs. Boney as follows: Mrs. Gavin, Pres.; Mrs. G. V. Gooding, Vice Pres.; Mrs. J. G. Morrison, Secty.; Mrs. Ivy Bowden, Treas.; Mrs. A. T. Outlaw, Historian. It was announced that a special meeting of the committee would be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Outlaw to appoint secretaries of causes and complete annual reports.

Notice

The Kenansville PTA will meet Monday night, March 7, at 7:30 o'clock. This is the annual meeting and the president, Mrs. E. V. Vestal will preside. The program will be closed with the installation of officers for the coming year.

Woman's Club

The Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon of last week with Mrs.

P. J. Dobson presiding. Mrs. H. D. Williams gave a report of the nominating committee and the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. P. J. Dobson; Vice President, Mrs. Caroline Gavin; Secretary, Mrs. Myrtle K. Quinn; Treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Sitterton.

The program which was in charge of the Fine Arts Dept., was presented by Mrs. E. V. Vestal for Mrs. W. M. Ingram who was absent. An interesting program was given by several members of Mrs. Latham's music class. During the social hour the committee served coca colas and homemade candies and peanuts.

Scouts Meet

The Girl Scouts met Tuesday afternoon. At this time a junior choir was formed and made plans to sing for the World Day of Prayer to be held Friday afternoon at the Kenansville Baptist church.

Music Notes

The Junior Music Club met in the High School auditorium Thursday morning, Feb. 24. The meeting was called to order by the Counselor, Mrs. Latham. Mary Sue Burch made a report on the hymn for this month. It was Abide With Me. Jimmie Bowden presented the program based on American Composers, which was opened by singing "America" and continued with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. The following participated in the program by playing pieces by American Composers:

Air de Ballet - Dianne Stokes; Off We Go by Barbara Mitchell; Swiss Village by Betty Ingram; Fairies in the Moonlight by Jean Weeks; Mischievous Elf by Millie Burch; Once Upon A Time by Sally Newton; Juba Dance by Mary Sue Burch; Dancing by Jimmie Bowden; Reveille and Taps by Emory Sadler.

The program was closed by singing the National Anthem. Next month's program will be based on Hymnology. Mesdames Lawrence Southerland and Bess Hines were visitors.

Dunn - Williamson Vows Spoken

On Thursday evening, February 24, at 6:00 o'clock Miss Susie Lee Williamson became the bride of Mr. James Allen Dunn. The ceremony was performed in the Baptist Parsonage by the Rev. L. A. Sharpe before close friends and relatives of both the bride and groom.

The bride wore for the occasion a beige tailored gabardine dress with brown accessories and a corsage of sweetheart rose buds. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short trip.

Miss Dunn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Williamson of Kenansville and a graduate of the Kenansville High School. For the past year she has been employed with the Southern Bell Telephone Company in Wilmington. Mr. Dunn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dunn of Kenansville. He graduated from the Kenansville High School and took a two-year Civil Engineering course at State College. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn will make their home near Kenansville.
