Try a Spanish Sandwich

For a bright change of pace in your meal planning, try a main dish sandwich with a Spanish air. This one is piqued with chili sauce, green pepper and onion rings, mellowed with lots of melted cheese. This Spanish sandwich is a meal in itself with perhaps a tossed salad on the side, a dessert and beverage. What's more, it's full of the elements that make for good health. The cheese is a bargain, nutritionally, for cheese is an excellent protein food. A half pound of cheddar cheese supplies as much protein as a whole pound of average beef, and cheese is listed as a best food buy by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Make Spanish sandwiches for dinner tonight. Keep the recipe at hand for guest-night fare, for teen-age parties, and for the Lenten dinners you'll be planning.

Spanish Sandwich

6 slices bread (crusts trimmed)	1/4 cup chopped green pepper
Mayonnaise	2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Onion rings	1/2 lb. American Pasteurized Process Cheese
1/2 cup chili sauce

Toast the bread on one side and spread the untoasted side of each slice with mayonnaise. Top with onion rings. Mix the chili sauce with the green pepper which has been sauteed in the butter or margarine. Spread two tablespoons of this mixture over each sandwich. Cover with a slice of the cheese cut lengthwise of the loaf. Place in a moderate oven, 350°, or under low broiler heat until the cheese melts.

McCurdy's 1001, while superior, is almost identical with NC 27. McCURDY'S 1002, IS ABOUT LIKE NC 27, BUT IS FLINTY AND MORE WEEVIL RESISTANT AND SHOULD BE USED WHERE FARMERS HAVE TROUBLE WITH WEEVIL IN HYBRID CORN. McCURDY'S 1010W IS SUPERIOR AND ABOUT LIKE DIXIE 17 WITH THE EXCEPTION THAT IT IS HARD AND FLINTY AND MORE WEEVIL RESISTANT, WHICH IS NEEDED IN YOUR SECTION.

State College Hints To Homemakers

That there is a right and wrong end up for keeping an egg in best condition is a fact which few people who pack eggs for sale realize. The large end of the egg should be up, poultry specialists say. Even in keeping eggs for any length of time in the home refrigerator, the best position for holding quality is a point worth considering.

The large end of the egg normally contains the air cell, which should be on top as the egg stands. If the large end is down, the weight of the egg presses on the cell, causing the air to rise and gradually loosen the membrane. At the same time the yolk, because it is lighter in weight than the white, rises from its normal position in the center of the egg to the top or small end. There it may adhere to the membrane so that it is difficult to remove the egg from its shell without breaking the yolk. Eggs with yolks out of position are of lower grade than eggs with yolks in the center.

Your regulation terry towels and face cloths are always on the job. They're a pile fabric - the surface loops do the drying and should be close and thick; the ground weave is the strong backbone and bears the strain. When you buy a towel hold it up to the light. Light should barely show through (it will show through white more than colors). Hems should be neat with firm, small stitches, backstitched at all corners to prevent unraveling. Pure linen towels are favorites as face towels and guest towels.

Sheets today are made of cotton (muslin and percale) and linen. Sheets of muslin are coarser and heavier than percale. Muslin sheets come in various grades, a thread lower is impractical as the wearing qualities are very poor. A count of 128 gives medium durability and satisfactory wear for the price; 140 thread count is the highest quality in muslin and gives maximum service.

Percale is smoother and softer and a higher thread count -- 160 count in carded yarn is sometimes called "utility" percale and is moderately priced. Combed percale sheets have a thread count of 200 or over and are of the highest and most luxurious quality.

Feel the sheets before you buy. See that they are firmly and closely woven with a uniform appearance. Cheap sheets are heavily sized, rub a corner of the sheet; if it feels harsh and a white powder comes off, the sheet has excess sizing and will be sleazy after the first wash. Hold it up to the light. If the threads vary from thick to thin there'll be spots that wear out too quickly.

Can Black-Draught help that dull, dopey feeling?

Yes, Black-Draught may help that "dull, dopey feeling" if the only reason you feel that way is because of constipation. Black-Draught, the friendly laxative, is usually prompt and thorough when taken as directed. It costs only a penny or less a dose. That's why it has been a best-seller with four generations. If you are troubled with such symptoms as loss of appetite, indigestion, tired stomach, bloating, nervousness, headache, and if these symptoms are due to constipation, try Black-Draught. It's a gentle laxative.
