7-Springs Students Have Gala Time At Annual Banquet

The gaiety of spring and all its splendor was the setting Friday night for the annual junior-senior banquet at Seven Springs high school. The school cafeteria was decorated as a spring garden and the banquet was staged by candlelight.

Following the invocation by the Rev. T. R. Hunt, a welcome was given by Margaret Maxwell, who served as toast-mistress for the evening. Response to the welcome was given by Edward Bizzell, president of the senior class.

Members of the junior class sang "A Garland of Old Fashioned Roses" and while they were singing a large garland of roses-bundled with ivy was presented to the senior class.

W. C. Sanderson gave a toast to the faculty and L. J. Outlaw, teacher at the school, responded. This was followed by a solo, "Indian Love Call," by Margaret Maxwell.

A toast to the school committee was given by Paris Moye and the response was given by G. Morgan Maxwell. Miss Elsie Kilby, music teacher at the school, played a piano solo, "Nola."

After the banquet, the tables were moved out and the cafeteria became a dance hall. Music for the dance was furnished by Rodney Roberts and his Music Masters from
