Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Knowles

Penny Branch HDC

The Penny Branch Home Demonstration Club will meet Wednesday, July 13, at 3 p.m. at the club house.

Whitehurst-West

In an informal candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. West, Miss Helen Anna West, daughter of Mrs. Norwood West and the late J. N. West of Warsaw, was married to John Donald Whitehurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Alva Whitehurst of Greenville. The Rev. R. L. Crosso, pastor of the bride officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ben Bowden, pianist, and Messrs. Henry West, Glenn Rollins and John Anderson Johnson, vocalists. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, James Norwood West, wore an original gown of sheer white imported organdy, fashioned with Peter Pan collar, embroidered with seed pearls, elbow length sleeves with cuffs embroidered with seed pearls. The full flowing skirt draped over crinoline with panels of fan pleats, val lace edging and a fringed taffeta sash. She wore a finger tipped veil of French illusion, falling from a coronet of pearlized orange blossoms. The bride's only ornament was a gold crown pin with seed pearls, an heirloom. She carried white feathered carnations and stephanotis, tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Anne West, sister of the bride was maid of honor and her only attendant. She wore pink organdy over crinoline and in her hair a halo of flowers, matching her bouquet of pink carnations tied with blue ribbon.

Haywood Sellers of Greenville attended the bridegroom as best man. The only usher was Walter P. West, brother of the bride. The bride's mother wore a gray crepe dinner dress. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dinner dress. Their corsages were white orchids. The bride's grandmother wore a gray and white dinner dress. Her corsage was of purple orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home. The lady's luncheon table in the dining room held a three tiered wedding cake, flanked by crystal epergnettes, holding white orchids and burning tapers. White carnations, fever few, and white gladioli were used throughout the home. Guests were greeted by Mesdames Norwood West and J. J. West. Ice cream molds of pink and white gladioli and wedding bells and individual pink and white cakes, mints and iced tea were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehurst left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling the bride wore a natural linen suit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of baby white orchids.

Mrs. Whitehurst graduated from Warsaw High School, attended Louisburg College, East Carolina Teacher's College and Conover's

School of Modeling in New York. Mr. Whitehurst is a graduate of Greenville High School and attended East Carolina Teacher's College. He is now employed with General Mills Co. in Raleigh. After the wedding trip the Whitehursts will be at home in Raleigh.

Shower

On Wednesday night, June 29, Mrs. R. L. Minton, Sr. of the Friend ship community entertained at a stork shower for her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Hale of Washington, D. C.

The living and dining rooms were en suite and very attractive with bowls of summer flowers. The dining table was centered with a beautiful decorated parasol, underneath which the guests put their gifts upon arrival. Games and contests were led by Mrs. Clark of Wilmington. Winners were Mesdames R. L. Veach, R. L. Minton, Jr., and Rom Jarman.

After the honoree opened and expressed her appreciation for the many cute and useful gifts, everyone was invited into the kitchen where Mrs. Minton, assisted by Mrs. Clark served a plate consisting of sandwiches, cookies, nuts, candy, and punch.
