Vestal Speaks Bob Wells Presides Farm Bureau Meet

Clinton, N. C. — Farm Bureau leaders from seven counties in N. C. Farm Bureau's District 3 met last week to hear plans outlined for the state-wide membership campaign. The drive opened officially Sept. 1 with a minimum quota of 80,000 members. Robert C. Wells, of Clinton, welcomed the group of about 35 people at the meeting Thursday, August 23 in Clinton courthouse, and County Farm Bureau President L. D. Herling pointed out that every effort would be made this year to reach the quota. Ellis V. Vestal, Kenansville, District Chairman for the NCFB Assistant Secretary, gave a description of national farm legislation as it stands at present. He guaranteed success of their drive efforts.

Personal

David L. Kelly, Winston-Salem, county Farm Bureau needing it to campaign, offered help to every urged the members to continue their efforts to make Farm Bureau strong through large memberships in all the counties.

Personal

E. Y. Floyd, Raleigh, Director of the Plant Food Institute of N. C. and Va. and Mrs. Irby Walker, of Greensboro, NCFB Treasurer, also addressed the group. Floyd emphasized the need for "organized effort" to help solve our farm problems. "We have a harder job on our hands to hold on to what we have gained, than we had in making those gains," Floyd said. Mrs. Walker stressed the Associated Women's portion of Farm Bureau work, and urged all women to take an active part in the coming campaign.
