Wallace Beats Mt. Olive 21 - 0 Warsaw And Faison Defeated

That old saw about opportunity must be revised. The new version is—Opportunity Knocks but Once—a Week. Every payday you have the opportunity to do something about those things you want in the future. All it takes is a little slice of that paycheck invested regularly in U. S. Savings Bonds. There are two ways to make that future secure—the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank. In ten years, every $5 invested brings back $4. U. Sutton - Miller

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller announce the marriage of their daughter

Martha Anne to George Vernon Sutton on Saturday, October 1, 1949, Warsaw, N. C. The above announcement will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Martha Anne. The wedding was an event of Saturday evening performed in the Warsaw Methodist parsonage by the Rev. R. L. Crossno at 8:45 o'clock in a simple and private ceremony in the presence of only a few members of the family.

Mrs. L. S. Whittle attended her sister as matron of honor and Mr. Whittle served as best man.

For her wedding the bride chose a brown gabardine suit with which she wore forest green accessories and a shoulder corsage of white orchids.

Since her graduation from Warsaw High School Mrs. Sutton has been affiliated with the Western Union Telegraph Co. in Wilmington, the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Warsaw and currently with the Duplin Theatre.

Mr. Sutton is associated with the Wilson Motor Co. in Mt. Olive where the young couple will make their home upon return from a wedding trip in western North Carolina.
