New Cigar Being Made In Richlands

The S & A Cigar Company of Richlands recently opened there for the manufacture of hand-made cigars. Mr. S. Argona, a native of Italy, who has had many years of experience in making the golden stogie, is now employing eight people regularly and hopes to enlarge to employ 100 within a year. He is now making two brands, Marcia De Merito (in Italian meaning the mark of merit) which sells for 2 for 25c. A second number, Corona, selling for 10c. He says he expects to put a 2 for 15 center out soon. His 2 for 25 have plastic tips. They are good looking cigars and having a pleasing taste and aroma. They are packed in attractive boxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Argona moved to Richlands about a year ago. After coming to this country from Italy he located in New Jersey where he met his wife. His father is a large cigar manufacturer in Italy, he says.

World's Series Seen In Warsaw

The employees and a few friends of Warsaw Furniture Co. enjoyed seeing the Sunday game of the World's Series over television at their store in Warsaw last Monday night. The new television set installed there seems to be working well they stated. The game was a re-broadcast from Charlotte. The reception on the whole was good, they said. Very little interference was noticed from passing cars, said to cause most interference in this section in television operation. They are regularly getting stations in Charlotte, Greensboro and Richmond.
