

N. W. Bonum Dies At 90

Nathan Walter Bonum, age 90, prominent farmer of the Oak Plain Community near Rose Hill died at his home early Wednesday morning after a short illness.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the Oak Plain Presbyterian Church at 3:00 o'clock by Rev. F. N. Bain, pastor. Burial was in the church cemetery. He had been active in all church affairs, having served as Elder for the past 60 years. The body lay in state for an hour prior to the service.

He is survived by his wife, the former Emma Herring of Kerr; two sons, Nathan Thomas Bonum of the home, Worth Bonum of Charlotte; one daughter, Mrs. Henry Hall of Rose Hill; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The inability of the domestic market to consume all our production is "again becoming the dominant and decisive factor in consumption, farm prices, and farm income," Secretary of Agriculture, C. F. Brannan declared in a recent talk.
