Miss Revelle Is Married

The marriage of Miss Naomi Faye Revelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Frederick Revelle of Warsaw, and William Dexter Skidmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Carter F. Williams, organist, and Tracy Ingte, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of duchess satin styled with a yoke of marquise edged with valenciennes lace. The full skirt was caught up over tiers of matching lace ruffles and fell into a full train. Her fingertip

Mrs. Otis Aldridge of Warsaw was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a gown of sky-blue taffeta with matching hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridegroom had his father as best man. Ushers were Harrison Coley of Raleigh and Elwood Revelle of Warsaw.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of blue crepe and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of teal crepe and a wrist corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the Daniels House, Rex Hospital.

The bridal couple left immediately following the reception for a wedding trip. For traveling, Mrs. Skidmore wore a suit of fawn grey gabardine and dusty rose blouse with black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.
