Miss Cassie Ruth Herring Bride Of Robert Franklin Smith

The marriage of Miss Cassie Ruth Herring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macon Herring of Warsaw, and Robert Franklin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith of Villa Rica, Ga., was solemnized Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in a candlelight ceremony in the Baptist Church at Warsaw. The Rev. Walter Taylor of Waycross, Ga., officiated in the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Nell Bruchhaus, organist; Miss Betty Jo Williams, soloist, and Miss Jean Rountree, pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of slipper satin fitted waist, fronted with self-trimmed buttons and flared skirt over hoops extending into a short train. The high neckline was fashioned with a yoke of sheer illusion and satin bertha. Her veil of French illusion fell from a head-dress of illusion and satin. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Anthony J. Sansone of Warsaw, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Her gown of white taffeta was styled identically as that of the bride. She wore a halo of white taffeta and bridal net and white mitts. Her colonial bouquet was of better-time roses.

The flower girls were Linda Smith, Villa Rica, Ga., niece of the groom and Andrea Herring, Franklinville, niece of the bride. They both wore miniature gowns of white taffeta, fashioned with round yokes, puffed sleeves and full skirts with apron effect ruffling over crinoline. They carried satin covered baskets of mixed flowers and wore matching flowers in their hair.

Brinton Smith, Villa Rica, Ga.,

brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Anthony J. Sansone, Warsaw, and Ralph Burt, Atlanta.

The bride's mother wore an original model of gray crepe with black accessories and wore an orchid. Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece gray suit and an orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a wedding trip immediately following the ceremony. For traveling she wore a two-piece burgandy suit with navy accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Warsaw High School, attended Wake Forest College and graduated from the Piedmont Hospital of Nursing in Atlanta.

Mr. Smith is a graduate of the Villa Rica High School and the Georgia Institute of Technology. He served with the armed forces two years during the war as Lieutenant and is now associated with the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. of Atlanta.

They will make their home at 2732 Cheryl Drive, East Point, Ga. On Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Herring entertained at a cake-cutting honoring the bridal couple in the Ladies' Parlor of the Baptist church.

Mesdames Moseley Phillips and G. D. Bennett greeted the guests at the door. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth, decorated with clematis and fern and cornered with epergnettes, holding baby chrysanthemums. It was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake holding a miniature bride and groom. White chrysanthemums and white burning tapers in brass candelabra decorated the console table.

Miss Katherine Bowen presided at the punch bowl. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Sterling Mariner.

Resolution Of Respect

WHEREAS it has come to the attention of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Warsaw that our Mayor, the late W. E. Currie, died at 1: A. M. on October 25th, 1949.

WHEREAS by reason of his effi-

Uncle Sam Says

What a picture he makes—that small, bright little charmer—all dressed up in Pop's cast-offs. But one of these days, not too far off, he's going to need some dress-up clothes of his own, a home to receive friends and a good education. And as you know, these things cost money. U. S. Savings Bonds offer you the fool-proof way to accumulate the necessary funds to supply these needs. Use the safe, automatic way to save—the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. In ten years, when that little boy is growing up, you'll receive $4 for every $5 invested.

WHEREAS the Board of Commissioners is desirous of expressing its appreciation for the services rendered by the late Mayor do hereby honor him.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that this resolution of respect and esteem for Mr. Currie, our deceased Mayor, be passed and spread upon the minutes of the Town and copies sent to his family and the press.

What A Man

New York, Nov. 1.—Concert pianist Tosca Tolces, 49, asked a court for a separation from her 70-year-old husband today, declaring that he was such an ardent lover that she couldn't get a night's sleep.

Asking $250 weekly temporary alimony and $25,000 fees for her attorney, the pianist declared that her husband, Gerhard Harwig, had "amazing virility for his age."

But she said his demands upon her made her life one of drudgery.
