

Sayer New Assistant National Adjutant of American Legion

Indianapolis, Ind. — William E. Sayer, of Indianapolis, has been appointed as assistant national adjutant of the American Legion by National Commander G. N. Craig, effective immediately.

Sayer, for 16 years department adjutant of the Indiana American Legion, succeeded Joseph E. Rabinovich of Grand Forks, N. D., in the national post.

William F. Hauck, 32-year-old disabled veteran wounded in action overseas, was named state adjutant to succeed Sayer. Hauck had been assistant state adjutant since July 26, 1945.

Sayer served in both World wars. A native of Chicago, Ill., he moved to Indianapolis in boyhood. He was graduated from Shortridge High School and received his A.B. degree from Wabash College. He served as a 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Army overseas during World War I. He was an Air Force major for two and a half years in World War II.

A charter member of the Burton Woolery Post 18 at Bloomington, Ind., of which Past National Commander Paul V. McNutt is also a member, Sayer was named Indiana department adjutant October 15, 1933. He is married and the father of an 18-year-old son, James, now a student at Indiana University

Want To Be Insurance Agent?

Beginning on Dec. 1, 1949, the following rules will be applicable in the matter of insurance examinations for agents and adjusters:

1. All applicants for agents' and adjusters' examinations must present a permit issued by this Department to an examiner before he will be allowed to take an examination. These permits will be on a special form and will contain information as to the type of examination to be taken.
2. Form A-1 and examination fee of $10 must be filed in the office of the Insurance Commissioner before permit to take an insurance examination will be obtainable.
3. In the event an applicant has already filed an A-1 at a previous time, for an examination on a particular class of insurance business, form Supplement to A-1 must be filed with the Insurance Department for each class of business other than that covered by the Form A-1 before permit to take examination will be issued. No examination fee in addition to the fee paid the first time is required unless an applicant has failed to pass an examination for a particular class of business on two attempts.
4. In the event an applicant wishes to be examined for more than one class of business, he must file Form A-1 for one class and Form Supplement to A-1 for each additional class of business.
5. There will be no refund of examination fee or other fees.
6. No examinations will be given under any circumstances at times and places other than those specified in the schedule distributed by this office to all applicants for examination.
7. No examination paper will be graded until at least one short form application for license for each class of business, together with appropriate fee, has been received in this Department. Where short form application for license and fee are attached to Form A-1 and/or form Supplement to A-1, a license can be issued with a considerable saving of time and delay.

Georgia Legion Asks Vets Save NSLI Cash

Atlanta, Ga.—The Georgia American Legion headed by Department Commander George Hearn of Monroe, has launched a campaign to encourage veterans of World War II to invest a share of their National Service Life Insurance dividends in U. S. Savings Bonds.

Commander Hearn has sent letters to officers of more than 300 Georgia posts asking the state's 63,000 Legionnaires to help distribute information on purchase of government savings bonds.

It is estimated that the 286,000 Georgia veterans of World War II will get more than $50,000,000 in NSLI refunds during the next six months. Commander Hearn has pointed out that if one-half of this sum is invested in savings bonds, it will be an "investment in security" for Georgia veterans and their families.

A per acre yield of 111 bushels is forecast for the 1949 sweet potato crop in North Carolina.

Prices paid to Tar Heel broiler producers during September averaged about 28 cents per pound.

Armistice Day

Today, at exactly eleven o'clock, every one will pause from daily activities, to pay homage to those who gave their lives in two great wars, that the rest of us might LIVE to enjoy the privileges of peace and democracy.

A moment's pause once a year, is not much. But if in that moment, we all resolve to strive unceasingly for adherence to the democratic principles for which our soldiers died . . . and if we practice those principles - without compromise, we shall have given purpose to their supreme sacrifice.

Nancy Holmes SUGGESTS

NEW indeed are the homemakers who dare to tamper with the traditional Thanksgiving menu. That's a feast which every member of the family expects to be exactly like last year's, the year before that and so on.

"Dessert is no exception," says Best Foods home economist Nancy Holmes. "Pumpkin pie has graced the Thanksgiving table since pilgrim days, and 1949 should be no different." Here is her favorite pumpkin pie recipe, rich and spicy—one that Priscilla might very well have baked for her John.

Holiday Pumpkin Pie

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 cup sifted flour | 2 tablespoons |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | grated orange rind |
| 1 tablespoon vitaminized margarine | 2 tablespoons cold water |
- Filling
- | | |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1 1/2 cups canned or cooked pumpkin, drained | 1 teaspoon vanilla |
| 2 egg yolks, well beaten | 2 tablespoons orange juice |
| 1/2 cup light brown sugar | 1 tablespoon orange rind |
| 1/2 teaspoon ginger | 1/2 cup chopped walnut meats |
| 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon | 1/4 teaspoon salt |
| 1 cup evaporated milk | 2 egg whites |
| | Whipped cream (optional) |

Crust: Sift flour and salt. Cut in vitaminized margarine until coarse crumbs are formed. Add orange rind. Gradually add water, stirring with a fork until mixture is dampened. Turn out on a floured board and shape into ball. Roll dough lightly from the center into a circle at least one inch larger than 9-inch pie plate. Fit into pie plate, roll edge under and flute.

Filling: Combine pumpkin, egg yolks and spices. Add liquids and walnuts, blend well. Add salt to egg whites, beat until stiff enough to stand in peaks. Fold into pumpkin mixture.
