

Warsaw News

Mrs. W. J. Middleton Hostess To James Kenan Chapter U. D. C.

The James Kenan Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met in the home of Mrs. W. J. Middleton Tuesday afternoon with Mesdames C. E. Reaves, J. W. Farrior and R. C. Pridgen hostesses.

Mrs. R. L. West presided and opened the meeting with "America" followed by the flag salute and ritual by Mrs. C. A. Womack, Chaplain.

Report of the general UDC meeting held in New Orleans was given. Approximately 60 N. C. Daughters attended this convention. Three honorable mentions were received by Mrs. Henry Stevens, Division Registrar, for work upon which the growth of a division depends, the transfer of C of C to U. D. C.; registering the greatest number of members between the ages of 16 and 25 for correct application.

Due to the absence of Mrs. Stevens a paper, written by her, entitled "Some Things For Which The South Did Not Fight" was read by Mrs. L. B. Huie.

A report was given stating that the paper written on Fort Macon by Miss Mary Alice Blackmore, Chapter Historian, was accepted by the B. F. Grady School and the Kenansville School to be used for a study in History.

Before the installation of the newly elected officers for the coming year, Mrs. C. F. Carroll presented Mrs. Robert L. West with a beautiful gold UDC pin. Mrs. West is the daughter of Mrs. W. D. Pollock of Kinston and the granddaughter of Maj.-Gen. Robert F. Hoke, who served in the armed forces during the War Between the States.

Mrs. West, president of the chapter, installed the following new officers: Mrs. Norwood Boney, President; Mrs. Paul Potter, Vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Secretary; Mrs. Fred Baars, Treasurer; Mrs. J. W. Farrior, Registrar; Miss Mary Alice Blackmore, Historian; Mrs. C. F. Carroll, Recorder of Crosses; Mrs. R. C. Pridgen, Custodian of Property; Mrs. J. C. Brock, Chaplain. Mrs. West invited the retiring officers to stand and be recognized for their services for the past year.

After the installation services, refreshments of chicken salad, pickles, crackers, cake and hot coffee were served.

Business & Professional Womens Club Hear Talk On "Health And Safety"

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Duplin County met Monday night in Mitchiner's Dining Room with Mrs. J. P. Harmon presiding. Miss Mary Lee Sykes of Kenansville gave a program on "Health and Safety". She introduced Mrs. Gordan Kornegay who talked on tuberculosis and gave illustrations showing T.B. cases in county and town. Mrs. Kornegay stated that Sterling W. Marriner had been made Chairman of the TB Seal Sale Drive, and urged all members to buy seals.

Dr. G. V. Gooding, County Health Doctor, spoke on Safety, Heart Disease, Cancer, Alcoholism, mental and TB patients. He commented that our county was conducting a good program for this cause.

Mrs. Avon Sharpe, who attended the mid-year Council Meeting in Southern Pines, gave a talk on membership. She stated that the theme of membership workshop is stabilization and the responsibility of the membership committee toward attaining stabilization. "Stabilization is continuous membership." Mrs. Sharpe stated. "A State B&PW officer said that we need stable rather than static members. A number of ways were mentioned to attain stabilization. At the present time there are 500 jobs represented at the average pay rate of $1500 per year. Of the 108,000 B&PW members in North Carolina only 2.9% are enrolled in the P&B.W. clubs. Keep the members busy. A job for everybody and everybody for a job."

Mrs. Harmon gave a report of the council meeting and urged more people to join the organization. Mrs. R. L. West also gave highlights of the meeting.

Lee Brown, Scout Master, was present and gave advice as to the duties of sponsoring a scout troop. Judge Robert L. West of the Rotary Club was also a guest.

New members were Mrs. Eva T. Lewis, Miss Anne Sykes, Mary Alice Whitfield, Mrs. Verna McGee and Mrs. George Penney. Mrs. W. E. Taylor was voted on to become a new member at the next meeting. The club voted to give prizes for the best Christmas outdoor decoration at the homes.

Supper consisted of barbecued chicken and coffee.

Mrs. Whitfield's Club Meets

Mrs. Billy Whitfield entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening with two tables in play. Mrs. Belton Minshew won nylon hose for high score. Visitor's high, a plastic tray went to Mrs. George Clark. For low score Mrs. Forrest Martin received a towel and bath cloth set. Traveling, a crystal vase was won by Mrs. Bonnie Thomas.

During games drinks and cheese bits were served and at conclusion the hostess served pecan pie and coffee.

Mrs. Winders Bridge Hostess

Mrs. Carl Winders was hostess Friday evening when she entertained her club at the home of Mrs. Robert Lewis. Potted plants and ivy provided the floral arrangements. Mrs. E. E. Jones won stationery for high score; Mrs. Laughton Albertson won candy for traveling. Yardley hand cream, second high, went to Mrs. Billy Bartlett and visitor's high, Old Spice Soap, to Mrs. Earl Whitaker.

During the games drinks and cheese biscuits were served and at the conclusion coconut cake with whipped cream and coffee.

Mrs. O'Neil Is Honored At Bridge Party

Miss Johny Teachey of Rose Hill whose marriage to Jimmie O'Neil of Pantego was solemnized Sunday, was honored Wednesday afternoon when Mesdames B. C. Bill, Edwin, and Charles Sheffield entertained at bridge at the home of Mrs. Bill Sheffield.

Yellow and pink chrysanthemums and indoor greenery were used where four tables were in play. The honoree received a corsage of white chrysanthemums upon arrival and was presented silver in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. Jimmie Kitchin of Virginia Beach received a sterling silver tea ball set for high; low, a traveling kit, was given Mrs. Ralph Best, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Frederick won hostess napkins for traveling. During progressions the hostesses served drinks and nuts. For refreshments, iced hostess slices in green and white, engraved with "Johny and Jimmie", green and white bridal cakes and coffee were served.

Jack Middleton, senior at Duke, and son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mid-

CHRISTMAS AMBROSIA

Those who couldn't say "no" to that extra turkey serving will bless you for serving this refreshing fruit dessert. Coconut and oranges are combined here to make one of America's favorites — Ambrosia.

2 cups orange sections, free from membrane
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups shredded coconut

Arrange layer of orange sections in serving dish and sprinkle with sugar and coconut. Repeat until all ingredients are used, topping with coconut. Chill. Makes 6 servings.

COCONUT DECORATION

You will want to tint or toast the coconut that decorates your Christmas sweets — it makes it more festive. It is simple to do. How to tint coconut: Place coconut in a glass jar. (Do not fill jar more than 1/2 full.) Dilute a small amount of food coloring and sprinkle over coconut. Cover jar and shake vigorously until coloring is evenly distributed and desired shade is obtained. How to toast coconut: To toast the coconut, spread it out thinly in shallow baking pan. Place in moderate oven (350° F.) to toast until delicately browned. Stir coconut or shake pan often to toast evenly.

dleton, has been elected president of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity Chapter at Duke. Two years ago he was a member of the Inter-Fraternity Council there. Jack plans to study medicine after graduation.

time Lionesses will be present. S. W. Marriner presided.

Lanefield H. D. C.

The Lanefield Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vance Phillips with Mrs. Marvin Houston presiding. At this time new officers were elected. They are, Mrs. A. C. Lockamy, Pres. Mrs. Andrew Scott Vice Pres. and Miss Eunice Davis, Secty.

Home Dairy was discussed by Mrs. Rudolph Best. Mrs. Vance Phillips talked on Food Preparation and Family was presented by Mrs. A. C. Lockamy.

Plans for a Christmas party were discussed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leon Merritt at which time the party will be held. This will take place of the regular Dec. meeting. The hostess served pineapple salad, cookies and Russian tea.

Bible Class Meets

The Sallie E. Johnstone Bible Class met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Sanford Packer. Mrs. B. C. Surratt presided. Mrs. S. J. Powell gave the devotional. The last three chapters of the study book were given by Mesdames M. A. Smith, C. F. Carroll and H. R. Hipp. During the social hour pineapple cake, potato chips, toasted peans and coffee were served.

P. T. A. To Have Christmas Bazaar

The Warsaw PTA will sponsor a Christmas Bazaar Saturday morning, Dec. 3rd at 9 o'clock at Stout's Ice Co. Proceeds will go toward providing lunches for the underprivileged children in our schools. There are between 30 and 40 children in the Grammar School alone who are doing without their mid-day meal. This retards health and school work. So come out Saturday and visit our bazaar. You will find something you can use and can be feeding a hungry child, too.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Mallard of Raleigh announce the birth of a son John Mallard 4th, on Sunday November 27th at the Henderson-Crumpler Clinic in Mt. Olive. Mrs. Mallard is the former Miss Frances Stephens, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. Van Stephens of Angier.

Personals

R. W. Riggs, formerly connected with the Carter Tile Co. of Clinton has accepted a position with the Stevenson Millwork Co. in Wilson. He began work this week. Mrs. Riggs and child will leave town in a few days.

H. D. Hollingsworth who suffered an attack of asthma last week is much improved.

V. A. Stencil who recently underwent an operation at James Walker Hospital is able to be up and out again.

Misses Mary Lee Jones and Mae Brock and Mary Ellis West college students, spent the holidays at their homes.

Mesars George Best and Lattie Williams were home for the holidays.

Miss Rebecca Best spent the week end with her parents.

Paul Berry, Jr. spent the holidays at home, accompanied by Ed Field, a schoolmate.

Harold Mathis was home for the holidays.

Hugs Carlton and Henry West was home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McGee spent Thanksgiving day in Arapahoe.

Miss Peggy Mitchell spent the week end in Fairmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopton Smith, Dwight Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Milton West, Charles and Lee West Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Marriner, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. West attended the Carolina-Duke game Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jenkins and Johnnie Jenkins, and Mrs. J. W. Farrior attended the Carolina-Virginia game Saturday.

Mrs. Ed Strickland and daughter will leave next week for Florida to spend Christmas holidays.

Mesdames Marcel Roque and Belton Minshew attended the funeral of C. C. Thigpen in Beaufort Friday.

Mrs. L. O. Williams has returned from visiting her father in Salemburg.

Mrs. Louellyn Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Phillip has accepted a position on the Stokes School Faculty for the remainder of the year. She graduated at ECTC Thanksgiving and spent the week end at home.

Mrs. Dan Baars, Miss Marie Baars and Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baars.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hart and son, and Mrs. C. H. Bundy visited Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Jones for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackmore and family of Winston-Salem spent the week end with the W. R. Blackmores.

Jack Middleton, of Duke, spent the holidays at home.

Mrs. Barbara Thompson spent the holidays at her home here.

Mrs. J. K. Williamson has been seriously ill for several days.

Mrs. Fred Baars is recuperating from several days of illness.

COTTON QUIZ

HOW MUCH OF OUR CLOTHING IS MADE OF COTTON?

ANSWER: COTTON SUPPLIES 34% OF ALL THE APPAREL FIBER USED IN AMERICA!

Masden Neal Whitaker son of Patrolman and Mrs. Earl Whitaker is a patient at Dr. Sidbury's Hospital at Wrightsville.

Arthur Sullivan Dies Calypso

Arthur (Monk) Sullivan, 74, died at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at his home in Calypso after nine weeks of illness. Surviving are his wife, the former Flora Jones of Calypso and one sister, Mrs. George Jackson of Mt. Olive. Funeral services were held at 3:30 Sunday afternoon in the Calypso Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member for many years. The Rev. Murphy Smith, pastor, was in charge. Burial was in the Calypso Cemetery.

State College Answers Timely Farm Questions

Q. What is the purpose of smoking meat?
A. The purpose of smoking is to add flavor as well as to give a more desirable appearance to the meat. Smoking also improves the keeping qualities of meat.
Q. Is it all right to can meat in half gallon or larger jars?
A. Meat should not be canned in any jar larger than a quart. Pint jars are even better than quarts.
Beef cattle were the most profitable enterprise in 250 unit test demonstration farms in Western Carolina during 1948 with dairy farming ranking second.
Bulbs of daffodils, tulips, hyacinths, bulbous iris and crocus should be in the ground by mid-November.

Gifts Galore

AT ERSKINE'S

BUY THIS YEAR - PAY NEXT YEAR

You'll be amazed at the terrific selection of tremendous jewelry values that are at your finger tips when you enter our friendly store. See them today ... and save.

23-DIAMOND SET $149.50 YEAR TO PAY	3-DIAMOND RING $100.00 EASY TERMS	18-DIAMOND PAIR $180.00 YEAR TO PAY
10-DIAMOND $42.50 $1 A Week	10-DIAMOND $33.75 $1 A Week	10-DIAMOND $55.00 $1 A Week
A-6-H HERITAGE LIGHTER $12.50 $1 A Week	BERMINGTON CONTOUR-6 $23.50 $1 A Week	PARKER "21" SET $8.75 $1 A Week
Men's DIAMOND MASONIC RING $24.95 $1 A Week	Lady's DIAMOND ONYX RING $22.95 $1 A Week	Men's DIAMOND ONYX RING $34.95 $1 A Week
TOASTMASTER $21.50 $1 A Week

ERSKINE'S Jewelers

110 N. Queen St. KINSTON, N. C.

All Cedar WARDROBES

Protect Your Clothes

HEILIG-LEVINE

Of KINSTON, Inc.
FOR FINE FURNITURE

New Permanent For Smart Looks!

Rejuvenate yourself! Rejuvenate your hair! With one of our lasting, flatteringly styled permanents. Have it in time for the holiday season.

operators:

MISS ISOBEL CONWAY
MRS. RENA LANGSTON
MRS. DORIS O'NEAL

Proprietor: OLLIE FOLSOM HORTON

LENOIR BEAUTY SHOP

CASWELL ST. KINSTON