

Warsaw News

Christmas Program

The annual Christmas Vesper Program will be presented next Sunday night, Dec. 18 at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church. A fine program is planned directed by Mrs. J. H. Hines. The church choir will sing a number of beautiful selections. A short Christmas skit will be given by the Youth Group. The public is cordially invited.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Harton of Goldsboro announce the birth of a son, Lynwood Mansfield Harton Jr. Tuesday, Dec. 13, in the Goldsboro Hospital. Mrs. Harton is the former Miss Elois Williams of Warsaw. Mr. Harton is with the Highway Patrol in Goldsboro.

Scout Party

The Legion Home was the scene of a lovely Christmas party given Friday evening by the Scouts of Warsaw. Leaders Mrs. Elbert Matthis and Lee Brown, assisted by Mr. Matthis and R. D. Johnson, Jr. chap crowned the occasion.

The mantle was decorated with holly and flanked by red candles. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of a Christmas tree and reindeers. The punch bowl, surrounded by holly graced one end of the table while miniature Christmas trees and cookies decorated the other end.

A large bag containing balloons, over which mistletoe was hung, suspended from above and when the string was pulled balloons covered the young people.

Ice cream, ginger ale, cookies, punch, and bubble gum were served. Games and dancing were enjoyed by the 41 present.

Husbands Honored At Christmas Party

Mesdames Paul Potter and Robert Blackmore were hostesses on Monday evening at the Potter home when they entertained at bridge. Guests for the evening were club members and their husbands. Seasonal decorations were used. High score for ladies was won by Mrs. Stacy Britt and low score by Mrs. Wilbur Garner. J. P. Harmon received shaving cream for men's high and George Penney shaving lotion for low.

Upon arrival the hostesses served ice cream tarts, pound cake and coffee and at the conclusion cocoa colas and nuts were served.

Each guest received a Christmas gift from underneath the lighted Christmas tree.

T. E. L. Class Meets

The T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Church enjoyed a Christmas meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. Oscar Best. Mrs. C. V. Garner was co-hostess. The home was beautifully decorated. The hostesses presented each guest with a Christmas gift.

Mrs. George Rollins presided. During the business a nominating committee was appointed for the purpose of securing officers for the incoming year. Mrs. C. V. Garner, Mrs. Emma Chambers and Mrs. H. G. Best composed the committee.

During the social hour Mrs. Clarence Brown led a Biblical quiz. The hostess served ice cream with strawberries, pound cake, nuts and coffee.

B & P W Hold Christmas Party

The Duplin County B&P W Club held its annual Christmas party Friday night at Mitchner's Cafe.

Decorations of holly, pine and other decorations were used in the dining room. A punch bowl banked with holly and lighted tapers centered the lace covered table. On a nearby table was an electric Christmas tree, encircled with four small Santas, holly and Christmas presents which were exchanged among those present.

Bridge, rummy and other games were played. Punch and cookies were served during play.

Miss Blackmore On Radio

Miss Mary Alice Blackmore, historian for the James Kenan Chapter UDC, gave an interesting paper, "Christmas During the Confederacy in the Dear Old Southland," over station WRRZ Sunday afternoon. Christmas dinners during colonial times were vividly described with turkey, vegetables and ham on the Yuletide table. Christmas during those times was a real event and enjoyed by all.

Miss Blackmore will again give the paper Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr. where the annual chapter Christmas party and meeting will be held.

WS of CS Meets

The general meeting of the WS of CS was held Monday evening in the auditorium of the Methodist church with Mrs. G. P. Pridgen presiding. Prayer was led by Mrs. H. R. Hipp; the devotional was given by Mrs. C. B. Best. Mrs. Robert West had charge of the program. The Rev. R. L. Crossno gave a talk on "Christ and Christmas" and dis-

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. West visited Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Pollock in Southern Pines Sunday.

Miss Fannie Wilson, at Goldsboro Hospital, is doing nicely after breaking three ribs in a fall last week.

Miss Lenora Womack left Tuesday to attend the funeral of her aunt, Miss Stona Womack in Pisham to be held Wednesday morning. The deceased is a sister of the former C. A. Womack of Warsaw. She died in a Danville hospital on Monday.

Mrs. Oscar Best visited Miss Fannie Wilson in the Goldsboro Hospital Saturday.

Warsaw, Faison Farmers Attend Raleigh Meeting

Fire chiefs from throughout the state adopted a resolution late Tuesday asking Gov. Kerr Scott to appoint a committee to study their proposals for rural fire protection. They asked that the group take immediate steps to achieve rural fire protection where possible and draw long range recommendations to be submitted to the next general assembly.

More than 100 fire chiefs from various cities and towns held an all-day session in the state capitol Wednesday and discussed plans already in effect in some sections.

Insurance Agent Godfrey Cheshire described the fire district plan being used by Duchess county, N. Y. Under this system a tax is levied within various districts of counties to establish and maintain fire stations.

Ed Swinnell, manager of Durham county, said the Durham Fire Department has added a special fire-fighting unit to operate in rural areas as well as in the city. He said county and city funds split operation costs 50-50.

Mayor Joe O. Talley, Jr., of Fayetteville suggested fire districts be established throughout counties to be served by expanded municipal departments.

A banquet was held that night at the Sir Walter Hotel.

Firemen attending from Duplin included Stacy Britt, Warsaw fire chief, who has been advocating a county owned fire truck in Duplin for some time. Also attending were Carlton Precythe, fire chief, and fireman Adams of Faison.

Mrs. Smith Dies At Faison

Mrs. Rosa Mae Smith, 54, died at her home in Faison Wednesday at 11 o'clock after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held from the home Thursday at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Reuben Jones, assisted by the Rev. Dennis Kinlaw and the Rev. J. M. Smith, officiating. Burial was in the Faison Cemetery. She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. E. M. Williamson of Calif. and Dorothy Smith of the home; three brothers, Isaac, Jim and Herbert Weeks, all of Clinton; one son Franklin Smith of the home; two sisters, Mrs. J. J. Bell of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Curtis Hobbs of Clinton; one grand son.

Times Will Be Out Early Next Week

In order to give our help a few days off before Christmas the Duplin Times will publish on Wednesday of next week. Anyone having news or advertising are requested to get same in the office as quickly as possible.

Around 200,000 farmers are eligible in North Carolina to vote in the national marketing quota referendum, Thursday, December 15.

Do your Christmas Shopping in

WARSAW

Mother and Dad holding secret conferences . . . Junior being very well behaved . . . Christmas is definitely on its way!

We think that this Christmas will be one of the biggest and happiest ever. And to make it extra merry, we've stacked our shelves to the rafters . . . filled our showcases 'til they're fairly bulging with nationally known brands of "just what you've always wanted".

Now the only question is, how to take the hustle and push . . . the fatigue and short tempers, out of your annual Yuletide shopping tour. We've a suggestion.

Shop AT HOME, where you will be served by friends and neighbors . . . where you will be served best, because your salespeople KNOW YOU! Shop at home because you save time and money—and still can obtain anything and everything that's available anywhere else. Shop at home because you are supporting the merchants who are supporting YOU . . . through their interest in better schools . . . better churches . . . better public services.

And on Christmas Day, let's all go to church . . . rich in the knowledge that this Christmas, by shopping right here, we've contributed to a better Holiday Season for ourselves—and a better community for all!

SHOP AT HOME
IN DUPLIN COUNTY AND SAVE

WILLIFORD'S

Department Store In Warsaw

YOUR CHRISTMAS HEADQUARTERS

Your Business Really Appreciated

Tricycles
Bicycles
Wagons
Christmas Trees

A. C. Hall
HARDWARE

WALLACE, N. C.

Peace of Mind all through the Night with a convenient Extension Telephone within arm's reach

Sleep is sounder and nights are safer when an extension telephone is on guard.

This is one of the many advantages an extension telephone provides for the home and family. An extension saves time and steps. It improves your service and makes your telephone more valuable by increasing its usefulness. Extension telephones can now be installed in homes at small cost. You don't need to write us or come to the office. Just call our Business Office.