James Kenan Chapter UDC Meets

The James Kenan Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr. with Mrs. Paul Berry, joint-hostess. The Stevens residence was beautifully decorated in the holiday theme.

Mrs. Norwood Boney of Kenansville presided during the business. Mrs. Stevens received a UDC pin from the chapter in appreciation of past services. She was president of the chapter for 8 years and also recording secretary. She is now registrar for the North Carolina Division. Mrs. C. F. Carroll made the presentation. Mrs. Stevens recently won first prize for greatest increase in membership in the entire Federal organization at the National convention in New Orleans.

Mrs. Robert West presented a certificate of membership to Mrs. N. A. Mitchell, new member. Mrs. George Bennett was also received as a new member.

Mrs. Stevens conducted a Christmas contest and gave each guest a prize, a handmade potholder as a Christmas gift. Members brought gifts for residents of the Confederate Women's Home in Fayetteville.

Refreshments were served in the dining room where the table was spread with a lace cloth, and centered with silver magnolia leaves and flanked with white tapers in silver candelabras. Mrs. Robert West presided at the silver coffee service and Mrs. Boney served cup cakes, salted pecans, mints from a silver tray at opposite ends of the table.

Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Walker Stevens of Warsaw and Mrs. L. A. Beasley of Kenansville. There were 25 present.

Philathea Class

The Philathea Sunday School Class met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. E. E. Jones with Mrs. Kenneth Fussell, co-hostess. The home was beautifully decorated in the season's theme. Mrs. A. L. Humphrey presided and led the devotional. Preparations were made to assist with the White Christmas program to be held Wednesday night at the church. Mrs. Milford Quinn led games and entertainment and at this time gifts were exchanged. The hostesses served devil's food cake, Christmas candy, nuts and coffee to the 18 present.

Hostess At Bridge

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Laughton Albertson was hostess to her club when guests for two tables were received in rooms featuring the holiday trend in decorations. The dining table was centered with a Santa Claus boot filled with poinsettia and greenery. Holly was in profusion. High score prize, a blue crystal basket, went to Mrs. E. E. Jones. Lo prize, an ash tray, went to Mrs. Robert Lewis. Mrs. M. B. Lassiter received note sheets for traveling. The hostess served toasted pound cake, toasted pecans and coffee.

Bridge Club

Mrs. A. G. Cooke entertained at a dessert bridge party Thursday evening at her home having invited guests join the members of the club to complete players for two tables. In the hall winter gardens, greenery and red candles carried out the Christmas motif, while in the living room poinsettia were used. As scores were totaled Miss Nora Blackmore received a bud vase for high score prize. Mrs. Laughton Albertson won a crystal vase for low, and Mrs. E. E. Jones, a devil egg plate for traveling. Visitor's prize, a mint bowl, went to Mrs. Bonnie Thomas.

Upon arrival Mrs. Cooke served fruit cake, cream and coffee. During progressions nuts, candy and cold drinks were served.

Warsaw Baptists Plan Program

The Warsaw Baptist Sunday School will hold its annual White Christmas program Wednesday night at 7:30 in the church auditorium. This year the program will be presented in the form of a pageant entitled, "If He Had Not Come", with 30 to 40 children and adults participating. There will be four scenes — 1st, "If He Had Not Come"; 2nd, "He Came"; 3rd, "Because He Came"; and 4th, "Until He Comes Again". Emphasis will be placed upon the theme of "giving". There will be no gifts received. Boxes of food clothing and toys will be accepted at this time and distributed among the needy in Warsaw and community.

There will be a program of true worship in the spirit of Christmas. A good attendance is expected. There will be a regular Sunday morning worship service Christmas day, but no service Sunday night. Wednesday night, Dec. 28 will be

"Student Night" and Dr. Greenlaw, pastor, will conduct a service honoring college students who are at home for the holidays. Students will also take part in the program.
