Miss Hamilton Weds Mr. Mc Bride

Miss Edith Vera Hamilton, of Manolia and Concord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Hamilton, of Magnolia, and John McBride, of Concord, son of Mrs. J. L. McBride and the late Mr. McBride, of Winston-Salem and Asheboro, were united in marriage in a formal candlelight ceremony in the Magnolia Baptist Church, on Tuesday, December 27, 1949, at five o'clock in the afternoon, with the pastor, the Rev. Peyton Royal, officiating and using the double ring ceremony of the Baptist ritual.

The vows were spoken before a background of native Christmas pines, interspersed with seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers, entwined with trailing smilax. The altar was banked with ivy and on each side of the bridal group were baskets of white gladioli. The pews for special guests were marked with white gladioli and satin bows.

Prior to and during the ceremony Mrs. T. M. Rogers, pianist, of Magnolia, presented a program of musical music and Mrs. Peyton Royal, soloist, sang "Because" by Handel and Grieg's "I Love Thee". For the benediction Mrs. Royal sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malott.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original model gown of white opera slipper satin, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, full leg o'mutton sleeves, ending in cala lily points over the wrists, tight fitting bodice, buttoned to the waist with tiny self covered buttons. The voluminous skirt with ruffles extending from the waist to the hemline, formed a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a bonnet of self material, and was trimmed with seed pearls and heirloom ostrich tips. Her cascade bridal bouquet of white pom pom chrysanthemums was centered with purple orchids.

Miss Mildred Hamilton, of Magnolia and Raeford, was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a green, satin gown, fashioned after the bride and carried a nosegay of red carnations edged in white.

Bridesmaids were Misses Jeanette Hamilton, sister of the bride, Eva Belle Kornegay, of Warsaw, cousin of the bride, Clara Jean Cooke of Winston-Salem, niece of the groom, and Edith Brown, of Magnolia. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of sweet talk red satin, fashioned after the bride, except for high round necklines. They carried nosegays of red carnations, centered with white asters, and their bouquets of self material were shirred beams and tied under the chin.

Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Victoria Kornegay, of Rockingham, aunt of the bride, Margaret Kornegay, of Warsaw, cousin of the bride, Helen Brown, of Magnolia, Lillian Powell, of Raleigh, Mrs. Caldwell Stafford, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. John W. Johnson, of Kerr.

Mr. McBride's best man was his nephew, Carlyle Cooke, of Winston-Salem and Sanford. Ushers were James David Hamilton, brother of the bride, of Winston-Salem, Lemuel Hardy, cousin of the bride, of LaGrange, Grady Carr McBride, nephew of the groom, of Wilmington and Tom Featherston, of Concord and Durham.

Mrs. Hamilton, mother of the bride, was gowned in orchid crepe, fashioned with full lace sleeves. Her corsage was of purple orchids.

The bride was graduated from East Carolina Teachers College, in Greenville, and for the past several years has taught in the public schools of Duplin and Cabarrus Counties, presently in the Harrisburg School.

The bridegroom received his education in Winston-Salem and is owner and operator of Hipp & McBride Sportings Goods in Concord.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Guests were received at the door by Mr. and Mrs. David E. Carlton, of Warsaw, uncle and aunt of the bride, and introduced to the receiving line, composed of the bride's parents, the bride and groom, and wedding party, by Mrs. Paul Bass, of Magnolia. Mrs. Peyton Royal directed to the dining room, where they were received by Little Miss Mary Catherine Bass, who passed napkins, inscribed with "Vera and John". Mrs. Caldwell Stafford and Miss Lillian Powell served bridal teas and individual wedding cakes from either end of the dining table, which was overlaid with an exquisite lace cloth, centered with bridal white snappers and fern in silver and flanked on either side by burning white tapers. Assisting in serving were Misses Helen Brown and Barbara Tucker. Miss Margaret Kornegay received in the hall and assisted Mrs. John W. Johnson in pouring and serving punch from the table placed beneath an archway of white wedding bell. Mrs. T. M. Rogers presided at the register and Miss Victoria Kornegay showed the way to the gift room, where the central decoration was a miniature bride and groom departing from an illuminated chapel. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Carlton. Mrs. M. T. Tucker, of Magnolia served as hostess at large. When Mr. and Mrs. McBride left for a wedding trip to unannounced destination, Mrs. McBride was wearing a navy gabardine suit, with grey accessories and the orchids from her bridal corsage. After January 2, 1950 they will be at home in Concord.

Out-of-Town guests attending: were Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Quay, Robert M. Peele, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Stafford of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carlton of Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. H. Mc Johnson of Willard, Miss Jean Powell of Wilmington, Mrs. E. A. Rodney of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris of Greenville, Mrs. L. C. Carlton of Kinston, J. Curtis Geddie of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Powell of Rock Hill, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hamilton, Mesdames Stacy Britt, A. L. Humphrey, Carrie Peele, Kathleen Snyder, Emma Chambers, and Miss Rosa West, all of Warsaw; Miss Frances Wilson of Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hamilton and Mrs. Clayton Carter of Burgaw.

Cake Cutting
Following the rehearsal on Monday night members of the McBride-Hamilton wedding party and out of town guests were entertained at a cake cutting by Misses Victoria, Margaret and Eva Belle Kornegay in the H. S. Kornegay home in Warsaw, which was attractively decorated throughout with Christmas blue and silver tree and candles. Guests were received by Miss Margaret Kornegay and invited into the dining room, where the table was centered with a silver and blue spray, flanked with burning white tapers, with wedding cake at one end and punch bowl on the other. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice of cake, her mother, Mrs. Hamilton, continued serving. Punch was poured by Mrs. David Carlton. Throughout the evening piano selections were rendered by Miss Jeanette Hamilton, sister of the bride-elect.

Saturday's Tragedy

In behalf of our town we want to express our deepest sympathy to the four families in Warsaw who suffered the consequences in the awful wreck here Saturday especially we do extend our sympathy to Mrs. Stacy Britt and children in the loss of the husband and father. We have heard and read of hundreds of wrecks but never have eyes seen anything so dreadful and pitiful as this. We also extend our sympathy to the town of Warsaw in the loss of their fire equipment. They have come to our aid several times and the entire loss of life, the suffering of the others and their families has cast a gloom over our town.

Weddings

John and Jerry "Smith Twins" Marry

John kept a secret. He has just let us know that he was married to Miss Christine Smith of Bowdens April 8. She was taking training at Rex Hospital, Raleigh, and he was in the Navy, and still is, but hopes to get his discharge soon. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Smith. She is at present with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and will remain till John gets his discharge.

Jerry was married to Miss Lottie Taylor on Saturday Dec. 24th. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Taylor of Willard. They are at home here in an apartment of Mrs. Ellen Chestnut. Both couples were married in Halifax, Va. We welcome the two brides to our town.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends for their kindnesses shown to us in so many ways during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. R. L. Summerlin and children.

Uncle Sam Says

You are now at the half-way mark of this 20th Century. The past 49 years have witnessed momentous strides in science, medicine, engineering, in short, all phases of human endeavor. These have provided unlimited opportunities for my nephews and nieces, with openings galore for the practice of their skills and inventiveness. In addition, your government offers a simple, safe and sure method which insures future security for home and family through the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds. By enrolling now for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or if self-employed, the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank, you will receive $4 for every $3 in ten short years. Make the 1950's your goal for that future security.

No wonder they're calling them

"TOP CHOICE FOR 'FIFTY"

They're greater in power—higher in compression—a standout in styling—dreams to drive—and now there's a Buick beauty for 1950 to fit practically any budget

No, we just couldn't hold back the whole big Buick line for 1950. They're too good-looking—too much fun to drive—too jam-packed with stepped-up, higher-compression, ready-to-ramble power—to be kept under cover.

So maybe you've already seen some 1950 Buicks on the highway. Maybe you've noticed the extra "git up and travel" they have—glimpsed the wide, curving windshields (one piece in most models)—noted, approvingly, that the typical Buick taper is now found in all Buick fenders. Maybe you've even heard some things...

That there are more than a dozen-and-a-half models to choose from. That there are three power plants in the Buick line—all of higher compression, all stepped up in power.

That all models are big and roomy inside—some rear seats are better than a foot wider than before!—yet in every instance, shorter over-all, so easier to handle, park and garage.

Above all, maybe you've heard of exciting news on price...

That Dynaflow Drive, for instance—standard on ROADMASTER models, optional on all others—now costs 20% less than on 1949 models.

That in the full line—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER series—there is a Buick to fit practically every budget above the very lowest!

Hadn't you better see him—right now—and see if you, too, don't find Buick "top choice for 1950"?

WHATEVER YOUR PRICE RANGE

"Better buy Buick"

LOTS OF LUGGAGE SPACE, plus a high-fashion rear-end treatment, grace the Buick four-door Sedan models for 1950. This is the ROADMASTER, and above is the SUPER version of this much-wanted 4-door, 6-passenger Sedan.

Phone your BUICK dealer for a demonstration—Right Now!

When better customer service are Buick BUICKS with Buick dealers. True to HENRY A. TAYLOR, AUC. Newark, every Buick dealer.
