Bell - Dixon Vows Are Spoken

The marriage of Miss Dora Betty Dixon of Kenansville and Mount Olive, and Bennie Bell of Mount Olive, was solemnized Wednesday evening, December 21 at 5 o'clock in the Bear Marsh Baptist Church. The Rev. Thomas K. Woody, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. James Loftin, pianist, and Mrs. Walter Stroud, soloist.

The bride entered the church with her father. She wore an original gown of candlelight satin, fashioned with a marquise yoke off the shoulder effect with a bertha of Chantilly lace ruffle, a tight-fitted bodice and full skirt which ended in a circular train. The finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with white orchids showered with stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. B. F. Jones of Richlands attended her sister as matron of honor. Her gown was of pink taffeta with matching mitts. She carried a pink satin muff showered with pink carnations and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Leonard Sasser, sister of the bride and Miss Shirley Wells, of Wilmington, were bridesmaids. They wore pink gowns, identical in design to that of the matron of honor, and carried pink satin muffs showered with pink carnations and wore matching flowers in their hair.

George R. Bell of Richmond, Va., attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Julius and Ray Dixon, brothers of the bride, Colon Holland and David Strickland.

Immediately after the ceremony.

Girls Game:
Kenansville girls led the game in the first quarter and then B. F. Grady took the lead and stayed ahead through the game. High scorers for Kenansville were Mary Summerlin and Katie Mae Quinn with 10 points each. Best defensive player for Kenansville was Thelma Hall. Sarah Waters was high scorer for Grady with 26 points. The final score was B. F. Grady 42, and Kenansville, 26.

Baptist Church.
Mr. and Mrs. Brinson received the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Holland invited them into the dining room where the table was decorated with an arrangement of white carnations flanked with burning white tapers in crystal candelabras. Magnolia leaves were used in bank arrangements on the buffet.

Mrs. Everett Dixon, mother of the bride-elect, served the wedding cake after the bridal couple-elect had cut the first slice. Mrs. Anos Brinson served coffee. Mesdames W. D. Strickland and J. M. Wells assisted in serving nuts and mints.

There were approximately fifty guests including the wedding party, close friends and out-of-town guests.

Bride Elect Honored

Bride-elect, Miss Dora Betty Dixon, was honored at a Coffee Hour from eight until ten o'clock in the home of Miss Eleanor Boney of Wallace, with Mrs. Alvin Powell of Magnolia as joint hostess.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. W. H. Browder and Mrs. Alvin Powell and pinned with miniature corsages of mistletoe. Receiving in the living room were Miss Boney and the bride-elect. The guests were then directed to the Register by Miss Mary Bland Hoffer and Mrs. O. C. Blanchard, Jr., of Wallace. The Register was kept by Miss Mary Murphy of Rose Hill and Mrs. Edward Johnson of Wallace directed to the dining room.

The home was decorated throughout with attractive and novel Christmas arrangements. The dining table was centered with an all white Christmas arrangement, flanked by burning tapers. Mrs. Colon Holland of Kenansville, sister of the bride-elect, poured coffee. Assisting in serving Christmas cookies, nuts, ham biscuit and cheese straws were Mesdames J. F. Branyon, Charles Farrior, O. C. Blanchard, Sr., Miss Willie Mae Dixon, Miss Carolyn Boney of Wallace and Miss Fannie Kearns of Kenansville.
