'Prince of Peace' Duplin Theatre Feature Mar. 2-3

Acclaimed by ministers, priests, rabbis and people of every faith for its non-sectarian presentation of its vital story of brotherly love, the new $2,500,000 two-hour Hallmark Production, "The Prince of Peace" in cinecolor, comes to the Duplin Theatre in Warsaw for two days only, March 2nd and 3rd.

The new film is the story of the life of Jesus. It drives home the most powerful lesson on earth.

Scenes in the film, photographed against the breath-taking beauty of the Wichita Mountains in Oklahoma, will thrill you by their unmatched sweep and grandeur. In glorious color, featuring a musical score written by Edward J. Kay and rendered by a symphony orchestra and the 80 voice Hallelujah Choir, the film will move the most hardened sinner, comfort the most trouble-led soul. Directed by two topflight Hollywood directors, William Beaudine and Harold Daniels, "The Prince of Peace" is considered the most artistic production ever to come out of Hollywood. Actually, the film is two stories in one.

With a cast of 3,000, including over 100 speaking parts and a new six-year-old child sensation, Ginger Prince, the film will appeal to every member of the family. "The Prince of Peace" Story is a film that God-loving people understand and God-fearing people need.

In spite of its glorious music and its grandeur, "The Prince of Peace" is a simple human story of everyday people who seek peace of mind. If you are seeking a way to live peacefully with your fellowman, don't miss it.

Capital Capers

A LETTER
Dear Friend:-
I want to tell you briefly of a great new motion picture which Mr.

Assistant District Attorney Spencer Tracy and his lawyer wife, Katherine Hepburn, do some extra-curricular arguing in this domestic scene from "Adam's Rib," M-G-M's hilarious comedy showing at the Capital Theatre here next Monday and Tuesday. Judy ("Born Yesterday") Holliday, Tom Ewell, David Wayne and Jean Hagen, recruited from the Broadway stage, are also featured in the laugh hit, directed by George Cukor.

HUMPHREY BOGART and INGRID BERGMAN in Warners Bros.' smash romantic drama, "Casablanca," which shows at the Capital in Kenansville next Wednesday.

Bruce Bennett, shows at the Capital Saturday, March 4.
The story of a young, two-fisted managing editor of a newspaper who battles a racketeer and his henchmen, "The House Across the Street" is bound to satisfy the most avid of seekers after cinematic thrills. Wayne Morris, husky ex-Navy pilot hero, who has continued to score in this type of film as he did before the war, plays the lead role.

C. E. Quinn, owner and operator of the Capital Theatre in Kenansville has arranged to bring to Kenansville. This picture is called

THE MESSENGER OF PEACE and is a story so rich in warmth, truth, and magnitude, and so sweeping in its scope that it is doubtful if the screen has ever seen anything quite like it before.

On the surface, the picture is the story of a young minister, who has just received his theological degree and is sent to a little backwoods community to preach the Gospel there, chiefly to people that have never heard or thought anything of Jesus Christ.

But underneath all of this is woven a fine story of not only the trials and tribulations of a young minister, but also of the joy and warmth derived from these experiences.

Yes, I think I speak the truth when I say that you will agree with me. "The Messenger of Peace" is truly one of the great gems of motion pictures. See it now because it may be a long time before it will return.

Mr. Quinn has arranged to offer you this picture at NO ADVANCE IN PRICES.

Please don't forget the date -- MARCH 2-3.

Most sincerely,
Robert Saxton.

The new Gene Autry star of Columbia's "Riders in the Sky", will show Saturday, March 4 at the Capital Theatre here. The world's greatest Cowboy is heard singing the sensational cowboy ballad, "Riders in the Sky", in his latest action drama, Champion, the world's wonder horse, Gloria Henry, Mary Beth Hughes, Robert Livingston, Alan Hale, Jr., and Pat Buttram are seen in support of the cowboy star. Gerald Geraghty's screen play was directed by John English. Arm and Schaefer produced this Gene Autry Production for Columbia Pictures.

A tightly-knit action drama, "The House Across the Street," starring Wayne Morris, Janis Paige and
