BRINSON - HUSSEY

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

The marriage of Miss Mildred Brinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brinson of Beulaville, and William Lafayette Hussey, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hussey of Wallace, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, March 4, at 6 o'clock in the Beulaville Baptist Church with the Rev. C. B. Dawsey, pastor of the groom officiating in the double ring ceremony.

Long leaf pines and burning tapers formed the altar with baskets of white gladioli on each side.

Nuptial music was presented by Joseph Jackson, pianist and Miss Mattie Frances Kennedy, soloist.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in a white wool dressmaker suit with black accessories. She carried a bride's bouquet of lilies of the valley, centered with a purple throated orchid.

Miss Mable Brinson, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a navy blue dressmaker suit with pink accessories and carried a nosegay of pink roses and carnations on blue moline with blue ribbon.

William L. Hussey, Sr., attended his son as best man. Ushers were Sonny Carter, cousin of the groom of Wallace; Jack Brinson of Kenansville; Major O. L. Austin of Washington, D. C., brother-in-law of the groom; and Cecil Hunter, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Brinson, mother of the bride, wore an aqua suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Sude Brinson, grandmother of the bride, wore a black dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Hussey, mother of the groom, wore a navy crepe dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Lela S. Parker. The living room was decorated with ferns, white gladioli, and burning tapers. Arrangements of glass and fern in floor baskets were used throughout the home.

Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Macy Brinson, sister of the bride, and Jack Brinson of Kenansville. Mrs. Parker introduced the guests to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. Sude Brinson, Mr. and Mrs. Brinson, the bridal couple, Miss Mable Brinson, Mrs. O. L. Austin of Washington, D. C., sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hussey, Sr.

Miss Kathryn Waller pinned on favors of white and green shamrock, and invited the guests into the dining room. The bride's table was covered with imported cut work cloth with a centerpiece of white gladioli and ferns. Mrs. Jeanette Brinson, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. M. M. Thigpen poured punch at each end of the table. They were assisted in serving by Miss Veima Brinson, Mrs. Margaret B. Campbell, Miss Thelma Brinson and Mrs. Hosea Hunter. Presiding in the gift room were Miss Daisy Burnham, Miss Ernie Sanderson and Mrs. Phoebe Pate.

Mrs. Marion Bratcher presided at the bride's book. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kennedy.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Hussey left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling Mrs. Hussey wore her wedding suit, tan topcoat and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Hussey is a graduate of the Beulaville High School and for the past 20 months has been employed with the Bell Telephone Co. in Warsaw.

Mr. Hunter is a graduate of the Wallace High School and is associated with his father in Wallace.

Following the wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Warsaw.

CAKE CUTTING

Following the wedding rehearsal Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brinson entertained at their home with a cake cutting. The bridal party, relatives and close friends attended.

The home, ensuite, was decorated with pink and white carnations, azaleas, fern and burning tapers in candelabra. The bride's table was covered with an Irish linen cloth, centered with a three tiered white wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Brinson, mother of the bride-elect, served cake and Mrs. Hussey, mother of the groom-elect, poured punch. Mrs. Charles Parker of Raleigh, Mrs. I. J. Sandlin, Jr., Miss Mable Brinson and Mrs. Hosea Hunter assisted in serving cup cakes, nuts and mints to the 75 guests present.
