JUST A MUSIN'

By: BOB GRADY

Have you read "A Maidens Ideal of a Husband?" If not, young man, maybe it's time you look it up. For it's spring and "a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love", as Shakespeare said.

April is the month between March and May, always fickle like a woman, sometimes laughing, sometimes crying but always playing.

New Clothes, new hats,
New fields of flowers;
New beauty, new life,
New sunny hours.
That's April.

Have you contributed to the Cancer Fund drive yet?

For the past few days I have stirred quite a bit. Not politicking all the time either. Sunday afternoon I rode out Friendship way. Have you seen the old Shine home? It has been remodeled and has what I think was that old Southern colonial look it had in years gone by. It's pleasant to ride through the country-side and see our old homes brought back to life.

Recently I met Mr. Efird from over in Albertson. He is almost a new-comer to Duplin, having been here just a few years. Says he came from Stanley County, the homeplace of the Efirds, made famous by the Efird chain of stores. (Wouldnt it be nice if one was in Duplin?) Mr. Efird said he was raised in the clay and rock hills of Stanley. Since his lot in life is to make his living from the soil he decided to pick a spot where the dirt was a little softer and found in Duplin just what he was looking for.

Have you been in A. Brooks' store in Warsaw recently. Since Moman Barr has returned as manager the store has taken on a new look. Shall we say a Spring look?

Drove over to Seven Springs on Sunday afternoon. The dogwoods are in bloom in the hills on the banks of the Neuse. The shad and rock fish are running. In the hills between the Springs and the Cliffs of the Neuse the Arbutus are blooming and the Galax and Heart leaves growing profusely in spots. These hills were my old roaming grounds in spring when a boy. It's a pleasant and relaxing drive to the Springs now.

Song From "Pippa Passes"

The year's at the spring,
And the day's at the morn;
Morning's at seven;
The hill-sides dew-pearled;
The lark's on the wing;
The snail's on the thorn;
God's in His Heaven
All's right with the world.
-Robert Browning.

Uncle Sam Says

My hat is off to the volunteer U. S. Savings Bonds County Chairmen and others who are still giving patriotic service to their country. Year in and year out these volunteers are carrying the message of financial independence through U. S. Savings Bonds to every county in the nation. For 1950 their slogan is: "Save For Your Independence." They'll show you how millions of Americans are securing THEIR future by purchasing, U. S. Savings Bonds.

Jr. - Sr. Banquet

Juniors and Seniors of the Warsaw High School held their annual banquet Thursday evening at the Legion Home. Decorations, done in rainbow colors, mixed with an abundance of spring flowers accentuated the seasonal trend.

The brick mantle over the fireplace was banked with magnolia leaves and peach blossoms. Overhead crepe paper decorations hung in rainbow effect. On the piano were jonquils, quince and magnolia leaves. Small trees with artificial peach blossoms banked the walls of the room. Each table was centered with flowers and flanked by pink and white candles. Attractive programs featuring teenage boy and girl in formal attire and similar place cards appointed each place setting.

At the speaker's table peach and white glads and white tapers were used. Sitting at this table were: Dr. A. W. Greenlaw; Junior Class President, Gene Holland; Catherine Steed; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Draughon; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harmon; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McGee; Senior Class president, Betty West; Frank Steed and Dollie Eaves. Other faculty members present were Ross Wadkins, Mrs. Kathleen Snyder, Miss Alma Suggs with Norman Jones; Miss Helen Brown with John A. Johnson; and Mr. and Mrs. W. J .Middleton.

The program: Invocation, J. P. Harmon; Welcome, Gene Holland; Response, Betty West; Speech, Dr. Greenlaw; Song, led by Stella Herring; Toast to Faculty, Carol Carlton; Song to Seniors, Juniors; Toast to Seniors, John Henry Creech; Response, Jack Byrd; Song, Bobby Hudson; Debate, Mrs. Snyder and Mr. Wadkins; Stunt, Mary Gray Davis and Arnold Jones; Farewell song, Seniors.

The entire banquet was under the supervision of Mrs. Kathleen Snyder and the Home Economics Department, assisted by Ross Wadkins. Girls from the sophomore class were chosen to serve. They were dressed in attractive crepe paper caps and aprons. They were Joyce Ann Davis, Doris Byrd, Inez Taylor, Kathleen Scott, Lois Phillips and Emma G. Rivenbark.

Immediately following the banquet a dance was held in the Legion Home. Music was by Skeeter Williams.
