JUST A MUSIN'

By: BOB GRADY

Sunday Night —
It's been a beautiful Easter Day. As I quoted last week: God's In His Heaven All's right with the world.

As I wrote last week when preparing the ad for Warsaw Floral Co. - "Spreading Fragrance Over Duplin," and that's just what Mr. and Mrs. Smith did.

When I walked into their floral shop Saturday afternoon and saw the piles of corsages ready to go to Kenansville, Faison, Beulaville, Magnolia, Warsaw, and literally all over Duplin, I thought "all this being spent for flowers, and just for one day how much good all this money could do." This morning when I stood in the church yard and saw the smiles on the faces of the girls and ladies parading to church in their new Easter bonnets and all trimmed out with a corsage, I thought: "It's worth it all. Yes those few dollars spent on the fairer sex made even the hardest of males swell up with pride." And as the choir sang in the choir loft the beauty and fragrance of everything seemed to make us all more humble and penitent. So if Easter can create this feeling, then isn't this just what Christ lived and died for? The more often we can feel and act in this vein the more we will get out of living.

We had the preacher for dinner at our house today. He is a young fellow, in his early twenties. Mr. Hayter is a senior at the Seminary. He is as well at ease and composed as you would expect of one with many years of experience. A virtual stranger in a strange home. I think the Easter spirit was with him. He will move to Kenansville in early June, on graduation from the seminary, and become the regular pastor of the Grove and Hallsville Presbyterian churches.

Bob Crosby and his orchestra are now playing "Ave Maria". I think this is one of the most beautiful pieces of music ever composed. It seems to be soul satisfying any time you hear it.

I imagine that my Linotype operator is getting tired of all this so I will look up a poem and let you call it "this" shortly. The following is taken from the poem "He dwells with us" by Vincent G. Burns:

Pray not "Abide with us". It need not be
We thus should pray on every land
For even now He dwells with you
He is the essence of the perfumed flower,
He is the secret of the planet's power,
He is the beauty in the twilight hour.

We find him in the vibrancy and vim
That sings to blossom on the apple limb,
Abide with us? We need must learn of Him.
