An Open Letter To The Voters Of Duplin

Kenansville, N. C.
May 1, 1950

Dear Voters:

This is just a note to you to remind you that I am a candidate for the State Senate from Duplin County. Registration books are now open. If you are not registered be sure and do so. The Primary is May 27th. Be sure and vote. If you don't vote for me vote anyway. We are all proud of our County of Duplin and the way it rates in North Carolina. In government the county that casts the heaviest vote usually gets the most recognition. The larger the vote in Duplin on May 27th and in the general election next fall the more we can demand and expect from Raleigh and Washington.

I want to represent Duplin County in the next General Assembly. I want to be your Senator. If you decide to vote for me and I am elected you can rest assured that I will do everything in my power to get everything I can for Duplin. I believe a good slogan for Duplin in all things is "One for all and all for one". We demonstrated last year that we can do big things in a big way when we almost astounded the country with "The Duplin Story". We have great possibilities here in Duplin in the future if we will just recognize and take advantage of those possibilities.

Let's all go to the polls and vote, vote in a friendly spirit, and be good losers as well as good winners.

Again I say, I want your vote. I would like to call on each of you personally but you know it is impossible. Please accept this letter as a personal appeal for your vote and support. If you don't vote for me vote for one of the other candidates. Duplin has a flock of good men seeking offices and no matter who is elected he will reflect credit on himself and the people of Duplin. We can trust our leaders and they can trust us.

Let's all go forward to a greater and better Duplin County.

Sincerely, your friend
J. R. Grady,
Editor of The Duplin Times.

P. S. Remember, the mid-century production of "The Duplin Story" is scheduled for September 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12th. Sam Byrd will move in the first of July. Let's begin talking and advertising it now. Bob.

FAISON WINS OVER MT. OLIVE 4-3

Behind the 7-hit, 14-strike-out pitching of Bobby Ingram, the Faison Produce League Baseball Team defeated Mt. Olive on Saturday by a score of 4 to 3. None of the Mt. Olive runs were earned. After Jim Taylor's 4th inning hit scored Jones to even the score at 3 all, the teams played on extra terms for the regulation 9 innings. Faison thored the winning run in the 10th when Roy McNeill's hit scored Parks from second with two out. Caswell Moore's tremendous drive in the 4th landed in the trees in right holding the hit to three bases.

Mt. Olive was impressive in losing. B. Smith looked good pitching and in addition was credited with three of the seven hits off Ingram.

Faison won the game in Mt. Olive Sunday 13 to 3.

Faison plays at Calypso Saturday afternoon and a return game between the two clubs will be played in Faison Sunday afternoon.

FAISON YOUTH TAKE CHARGE

In observance of National Youth Week the young people of the Faison churches had charge of the Sunday Schools in three of the churches. A creditable job was done by all the groups and the opinion was expressed by many that the plan of having them take charge several Sundays throughout the year would be beneficial to the young people as well as to the Sunday schools.

In the Presbyterian church Charles Lee acted a superintendent, Marie White led the invocation, Curtis Cates led the responsive reading, Frank Donnell Taylor the benediction; Mary Baugham was secretary and Doris Daughtry, pianist. Mary and Doris served in their regular jobs.

At the Baptist Henry Precythe acted as superintendent, assisted by Cecl Daughtry with the benediction and the regular pianist, Mary Ellen Hobbs and regular secretary, John Grooms.

Gerald McGowan acted as superintendent at the Methodist church, assisted by James McCumber. Ann Warren was pianist. The Junior Choir sang a special number accompanied at the piano by Verna Taylor.
