Life Begins At 40

BY: MRS. C. L. SLOAN,
 Calypso, - Franklin Club

It has been well said, that Life Begins At Forty. At this age a real woman and true mother, begins to see her day-dreams dawning into reality.

She has spent the past years of her life, day-dreaming, toiling, planning and looking forward, to possessing a comfortable home, for her husband and children to enjoy.

Now that this great task has been accomplished, those days of patient, anxious, untiring loving service of caring for, rearing, training and educating her children has become a reality, she can begin to relax and rest more.

During those past years, she has found it necessary to sacrifice many things she would like to have and do in order that she might make her family more happy. She has devoted a large portion of her time and energy helping her family develop into good citizens of this great country of ours.

Now she has more time to devote to herself. To do some of the things she would like to do. She can read and travel more and keep up with world happenings more. She can become more interested in other people and how they live.

Having lived quietly, sacrificially and humble, has helped her to develop into a beautiful, kind, intelligent, and interesting personality. The kind of a person everyone admires and likes to be with.

Now that she has the time and opportunity, she keeps up with the latest things in style and well grooming. She is always well dressed for all occasions.

She has learned the art of keeping young and has developed into a lovely personality and a gracious hostess. The great Church organizations, Club, School and Community centers are more than glad to welcome her talents, and ability of leadership.

Forgiving Love
 Lesson for May 14, 1950.

ALL RELIGIONS believe in God, but not all religions know the God who loves. Gods that rule, gods that threaten and punish, gods that sit on high and distant thrones—yes, the history of religions shows plenty of these. But it is not every religion that believes in a God capable of love. We Christians say that God is love, but already centuries before Christ the Dr. Foreman inspired Hebrew prophet Hosea was saying that the high God, the holy God, not only can but does love his creatures on earth.

Love With an IF
BUT HOSEA goes further than this. Even the religions that teach the love of God do not always understand it. That there are "favorites of heaven" is an idea common to many religions, ancient and recent.

The notion that God loves those who love him, that his love is a reward for good behavior, that he loves good people but not bad people, in short that he loves only the lovable—this is believed by a great many, but it is not true. To put it in another way: Many religions, and even some persons in the Hebrew and Christian religions, suppose that God loves us with an IF.

Some of the more primitive religions think of God as loving only if he feels like it, if he happens to be in the right mood. There is no telling when he may love and when not; he is as unpredictable as spring weather. The higher religions know better; God is not capricious and impulsive like a child.

But still sometimes even in better religions God is thought of as loving with an IF. If you love me (he is thought of as saying) I will love you. If you are good enough to love, I will love you. If you earn my love, I will pay you by loving you.

No IF in God's Heart
HOSEA HAD LEARNED a deeper lesson from God. Through his own bitter experience (see last Sunday's lesson) he knew that his own love for his wife outlived all the shame she had brought to his heart and home. In himself he knew, as a living fact, love for an unloving and unlovable person. So—and so much more—God could, would and did love his unfaithful people Israel.

"God so loved Israel—," said the prophet. "God so loved the world," says the Gospel. God's love is not the bargaining kind. He does not wait till we are "good enough." His love has no IF in it.

Suppose We Say No?
AT THIS POINT something must be said that would seem to go without saying, only there are so many persons who misunderstand the truth just here. God is love: we learned that in Sunday school when we were small, we have seen it in mottoes on the wall, we have grown used to the idea. But sometimes we twist this truth into something else.

We think, "If God is love then it doesn't matter much what we do. He is going to look after us and see that we come out all right. Nothing's going to hurt us because our loving Father is right here to protect us." This is a mistake.

Hosea teaches, and the Bible as a whole teaches, that God's love is not compulsive; that is, his love must be freely received because it is freely offered. We can say "No" if we insist.

And if we do turn our backs and run away, the consequences are terrible and not even God's love will keep us from them.

It is only the person who turns his heart to God who finds that love, like sunlight, casting out the fear and the evil from his mind and heart.

The Cost of Love
THE DEEPEST TRUTH of all is one which Hosea partly sees, but is fully seen only in the New Testament. God's love for sinners is costly. It is not a light thing, easily given.

As Hosea's forgiving of Gomer cost him much, so the love of God for his wandering children costs him more. That this is true, Hosea realizes.

But to know what the love of God really costs, we have to stand in the light of Calvary. Paul speaks of the church of God "which he purchased with his own blood." There can be no higher price than that.
