BRIDGE CLUB

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Y. L. Smith entertained her bridge club at her home, invited members making up two tables. African violets were used in the living room and snapdragons in the dining room.

For high Mrs. Arthur Cooke received salt and pepper shakers. Second high, apron, went to Mrs. Robert Lewis who also won a napkin holder for traveling.

During the game the hostess served corns and drinks. At conclusion she served fruitcake and ice cream to Mesdames Cooke, Lewis, Milford Quinn, Bonnie Thomas, Mormon Barr, Geo. Clark, and Laughton Albertson.

ROTARY CLUB HAS STEAK SUPPER

After a 3-month attendance contest put on by the Rotary Club, the losing team, headed by Ralph Applewhite, was host Thursday evening to Hopton Smith's winning team at a steak supper. The meeting was presided over by E. C. Thompson, president. There were 17 present.

WEINER ROAST FOR SENIORS

The senior graduates enjoyed a weiner roast Tuesday evening in the Scout Hut. They were entertained by their class mascots, Harriet O'Leary and Graham Blackburn. Mrs. Pat O'Leary and Mrs. Bertie Blackburn acted as hostesses and served weiners, marshmallows and cold drinks to about 26. Group singing was also enjoyed.

GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. R. E. Wall was hostess to the Garden Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Hill St.

The home was beautifully decorated with summer flowers brought by members.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Paul Borden of Goldsboro, accompanied by Mrs. Best who was in charge of the recent flower show held in Goldsboro. They were introduced by Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr. Mrs. Borden spoke on flower arrangements. She invited the Warsaw club to attend Judges School to be held in November in Goldsboro. During business it was suggested that a park be developed at the intersection of the new highway 117, for the model mile project.

Visitors included Mrs. John Fonville. Three new members, Mesdames J. W. Straughan, Kathleen Snyder and Allan Draughton, Sr. were admitted. 17 members were present.

Mrs. Borden was presented a jumbo cup and saucer set and Mrs. Best received a corsage of yellow roses. The hostess served ice cream and cake with coffee.
