"Bright Leaf" To Have Premier Showing In Kenansville Theatre

The Capital Theatre in Kenansville has been chosen by the producers for a premier showing for this section of "Bright Leaf", the story of tobacco. The showing dates here are June 14th and 15th.

No picture in recent years has aroused more interest than "Bright Leaf" while in production at Warner Bros. studios. Combining the talents of Gary Cooper, Lauren Bacall, Patricia Neal and Jack Carson and with famed director Michael Curtiz in charge, "Bright Leaf" was the center of attention in the whole film colony from the day it started preparation.

For picture purposes "Bright

Leaf" best selling novel of 1948-49, has been captured in time to one decade, the years 1890 to 1900, when cigarette-making machines were first introduced in the South and the whole mighty empire shook as a result of it. With Lauren Bacall as a tempestuous Sonia Kovac and Patricia Neal playing the great lady, Margaret Singleton, Cooper has two leading ladies to love and share picture honors. Jack Carson, playing one of his infrequent "straight" roles, and Donald Crisp as the opposition in story plot, are other leading names in the all-star cast.
