BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Ike Stroud was hostess to her bridge club at her home on Wednesday afternoon. The living room was attractively with glads and other summer flowers. Mrs. Jasper Smith was awarded prize for club high, Mrs. D. W. Ruffin received second high and Mrs. Helen Turner received consolation. Mrs. Bessie W. Williams won visitor's high prize. Mrs. Matt Burke received bingo prize and Mrs. Floyd Betz of Grand Rapids, Minn. who is here visiting relatives was remembered with a gift. The hostess served coca colas during progressions and at the end of play date nut cake with whipped cream.

VFW MEETS Socially

Most enjoyable was the joint session of the Willard Smith Post No. 9514 of the V. F. W. and its Auxiliary which was held at the hut Friday night, June 30. A good crowd attended and several new auxiliary members were added to the roll. Commander George Turner presided. Graham Turner gave a report on the convention held at Hendersonville early last month. Mrs. Lois Johnson, on behalf of the Auxiliary, thanked the VFW for the invitation to meet with them, and everyone enjoyed the delicious chicken supper. Dancing was enjoyed after the meeting.

ACCIDENT

Bobby Williamson, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williamson of Pink Hill, fell from a board into the mill race at Maxwell's Mill Sunday afternoon and received serious bruises about his face, which struck some brick. H. D. Maxwell rendered first aid and he is now getting along nicely.
