V. F. W. Auxiliary Holds District Meeting

A District meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held Sunday at the VFW Hut in Pink Hill. The guest speaker was Otis N. Brown of Greensboro, National Post Commander in chief of the VFW. A session of the Auxiliary was held in the dining hall of the Pink Hill school.

Mr. Brown, in his remarks said, there were 19,000,000 men now eligible for the VFW membership and less than 5 per cent were active members. He said if they would organize they could control the destiny of this country. He urged that they hope and pray, go out and button-hole these boys who aren't members and get them to join.

At the close the Auxiliary served dinner to the group.

Present for the meeting included District Commander Glen Hayes and Mrs. Hayes of Kinston, Earl D. Knauf of Jacksonville, Commander Harold Dall and Mrs. Dall of the Clinton Post, Mrs. Stubbs of Kinston Dist. Pres. of the Auxiliary and other representatives from Kinston, La Grange, Farmville and Goldsboro.

George M. Turner is Commander of the Pink Hill Post.
