MRS. JAMES CURTIS GEDDIE is the former Miss Mildred Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar Hamilton of Magnolia. Her marriage to Mr. Geddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Geddie of Vander, took place Saturday in the Magnolia Baptist Church.

GEDDIE - HAMILTON

WEDDING

In the afternoon ceremony of Saturday, July 15th in the Magnolia Baptist Church, Miss Mildred Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar Hamilton, became the bride of James Curtis Geddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Geddie of Vander.

The Rev. Peyton Royal performed the ceremony. The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Paul Potter of Warsaw, pianist, and Mrs. Peyton Royal, soloist, of Magnolia.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon Honeycomb, fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, full length sleeves, ending in a point, and a full skirt falling to a full length train. Her finger-tip veil of nylon illusion fell from a net bonnet trimmed with imported orange blossoms. She carried a lacy fan of mixed flowers centered with a purple throated white orchid with matching ribbon.

The bride was attended by Mrs. John McBride of Concord, as matron of honor, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Jeannette Hamilton of Magnolia, sister of the bride, Victoria Kornegay of LaGrange, aunt of the bride, Frances Carlton, cousin of the bride, and Inez Owen of Fayetteville, cousin of the groom.

The attendants wore gowns of novelty embroidered organza, fashioned after the bride, long sleeves, carried lacy fans of mixed flowers tied with matching ribbon and wore hair clusters matching their bouquets.

Best man was the groom's cousin Dick Upton of Smithfield and groomsmen were Harold Geddie and W. M. Owen of Fayetteville, cousins of the groom, John McBride of Concord, brother-in-law of the bride, and Lemuel Hardy of LaGrange, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hamilton wore an orchid crepe gown with full length lace sleeves with a purple-throated orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a gown of blue lace over taffeta and a purple-throated orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents for members of the bridal party and guests. Guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Carlton of Warsaw, Mrs. L. H. Fussell introduced the guests to the receiving line, consisting of the wedding party and couple's parents. Others assisting throughout the house were Mesdames Paul Bass, Paul Potter, M. T. Tucker, L. C. Carlton, Peyton Royal, Misses Betty Jean Johnson, Barbara Tucker, Miriam Turner and Carolyn Sasser.

After the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a two-piece pink trimmed blue crepe dress and blue accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from the Magnolia High School and received a Bachelors of Arts degree from E. C. T. C. Since her graduation she has been teaching in the Warsaw and Raeford grammar schools.

The groom graduated from Stedman High School and P. J. C. and attended E. C. T. C. Since June, 1941, he has been connected with the Public Housing Administration.

After the wedding trip they will make their home in Portsmouth, Va., where Mr. Geddie is employed.
