Farmer's Profits May Depend On Highway Travel; Families Involved

Raleigh, N. C. — A highway accident can wipe out a farmer's profit for the entire year, the Department of Motor Vehicles pointed out today, as seasonal movements of tobacco began in Eastern North Carolina.

The Border markets opened Tuesday to be followed by other markets throughout the State during the late summer and early fall.

Reminding farmers that they and members of their families are involved in approximately one-fourth of the State's highway accidents, the Department added that seasonal movements of crops flood certain travel arteries of the State, bring about additional highway hazards and generally account for an upward trend in accidents in the heavily traveled areas of the State.

The Highway Patrol reported that schedules for patrolmen in areas involved will be revamped in order that patrolmen may be on the heavier-traveled routes on an around-the-clock basis.

The Department reminded farmers that the statutes set forth strict provisions in connection with the operation of trailers used in seasonal movements. Trailers must be firmly attached to towing vehicles in order that they will not sway or become detached. Trailers carrying not more than 2500 pound loads, must be equipped with two rear reflectors, each not less than four inches in diameter, and visible for at least 500 feet. All vehicles must be loaded in a manner to prevent the load from dropping from the truck. All vehicles must be in top condition. Lights, brakes, steering mechanism, windshields, tires and rear view mirrors on towing vehicles and trucks must be in good shape.

A check of accident reports for past years revealed the following causes of accidents involving farm vehicles during seasonal movements:

Tarps tied so as to obscure lights or reflectors on rear.

Improperly secured loads, permitting stacks of tobacco to fall into the highway, creating a hazard for other vehicles.

Improperly secured trailers, swaying in a manner causing the tow vehicle and trailer to overturn or trailer to become detached.

Overloading which causes vehicle to overturn.

Defective tires or axles on trailers.

Defective brakes, lights, steering, windshields, etc.

The Department also cautioned operators of vehicles hauling tobacco away from markets in hogheads. Loads must be secured in a manner to prevent load from falling from carrier. Trucks must not be overloaded or loaded in a manner causing vehicle to overturn.

Duplin Native Buried In Kinston

Funeral services for John Thomas Whitfield, 71, prominent Kinstonian who succumbed to heart trouble in a Richmond, Va., hospital Thursday evening, July 27 after a two weeks illness, were held from Queen Street Methodist Church in Kinston with interment in Maplewood Cemetery. His pastor, Dr. Henry I. Glass, officiated.

Mr. Whitfield was a native of Duplin County, a son of the late J. T. and Sara Reeves Whitfield, and went to Kinston at the age of 17. He was engaged in the buggy manufacturing business for many years and later in the automobile business. He also had large real estate holdings. His wife, the former Vera Spence of Lenoir County, died in 1933. He was stricken two weeks ago and after treatment in a Kinston hospital for about ten days was moved to Stuart Circle Hospital in Richmond, Va.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Henry H. Johnson and Miss Doris Whitfield of Kinston; two sons, John T. Jr., and Herbert Whitfield of Kinston; two grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. T. P. Puckett of Columbia, S. C., and Mrs. Henry Grady of Mt. Olive; one brother, Dan Whitfield of Mt. Olive and a half-sister, Mrs. J. M. Daly of Kinston.

When your favorite television programs are over, good coffee should always be on tap for family and friends to serve with something "special" as a fitting finale to a nice evening. Any one of the coffee-flavored desserts featured will be just right for late evening refreshments. Easy to prepare and impressive for any occasion are these desserts that combine modern cooking with old-fashioned goodness.

You can serve one or many with fresh, flavorful coffee in a flash. Just measure one teaspoon of soluble coffee (more or less rounded according to strength desired) in a cup, and add freshly boiling water, and stir. To make six cups of good coffee, just pour one quart of boiling water on 6 teaspoons of soluble coffee and stir to assure a brew of even strength.

Coffee and Cream Cake is a delicious accompaniment for coffee-flavored ice cream, made simply and quickly by blending 1 tablespoon of soluble coffee with one package of ice cream mix. This is a neat trick that wins compliments every time. For an extra special evening, surprise your guests with Marshmallow Supreme, a simple dessert with a sophisticated flavor of fresh coffee.

COFFEE AND CREAM CAKE

Make your favorite plain cake mix recipe and then use:

- 6 tablespoons sugar
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons soluble coffee
- 1 cup scalded milk
- 1 egg yolk

Combine first 4 ingredients in a small pan. Stir in milk. Cook until thickened. Place over hot water, cook about 15 minutes.

Beat egg yolk slightly, add a little of the hot mixture and return to pan. Cook 2 minutes. Add butter, cool thoroughly.

COFFEE ICING

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 egg yolk
- 1/4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
- 2 teaspoons soluble coffee
- 1 tablespoon milk
- 1 egg yolk

Mix butter and egg yolk. Add sifted confectioners' sugar which has been mixed with soluble coffee. Gradually add milk, beating all the while, until a smooth, creamy consistency is reached.

MARSHMALLOW SUPREME

- 1/2 lb. marshmallows
- 1/2 cup sherry
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 cups undiluted evaporated milk
- 2 teaspoons soluble coffee
- 1/2 cup hot water
- toasted almonds

Cut marshmallows in quarters and let them stand overnight in sherry. In top of a double-boiler, dissolve gelatin in cold water. Cook for 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Dissolve soluble coffee in hot water. Add to the milk mixture. Fold in marshmallows. Pour into one quart mold rinsed with cold water and chill. Unmold, garnish with whipped cream, cherries and almonds. Yield: 6-8 servings.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt are visiting in Chicago and New York for a few days.

VEGETABLES IN AUG.

LISTED AS PLENTIFUL

Food markets will offer plenty of cabbage, carrots, Irish potatoes and locally grown vegetables to enrich southern meals in August. Miss Hilda Clontz, home agent said and best supplies of meats will be found in hens, broilers, fryers, and fish. Milk, eggs and processed dairy products are among the protein foods that will also be in abundant supply in August, she said.

Problems Of Survival

It seems clear now that our federal government must make war-scale military expenditures for an indefinite period. Regardless of the duration of the Korean conflict, it already has demonstrated that neither our present nor our previously planned military strength would be sufficient in an all out showdown with the sprawling Communist war machine. Our government must therefore spend heavily, at least during the next several years, to build up the fighting strength of the armed services.

The new spending for actual war, piled on top of the already huge "cold war" outlays and the other staggeringly expensive federal government services which have been mushroomed in the past 20 years, creates a whole new series of national problems and dangers. In war time or any prolonged preparation for war, a danger that can be equal to that of war itself is the abnormal growth of government in size, power and cost.

An Historic Danger

Power once conferred upon an individual is seldom voluntarily given up. The same applies to government, only more so. Many of our federal government's controls, adopted as emergency measures during the war still are in force—five years after the end of the war. Another danger is the intensification of the undercover work of movements seeking to scrap our capitalistic enterprise system.

England's Example

We now know that the British Socialists did their decisive work in England while opponents were preoccupied with the war. If our economy should become critically strained because of the terrific burden of this new war effort following so closely upon the sapping cost of the last one, our capitalistic system might be able to promise only "blood, sweat and tears". The disguised American Socialists would step forward then, as they did in England, with their rainbow of promises—"the good life, jobs for all, security for all from the cradle to the grave, fair shares"—all provided by the "Welfare Government."

Wisdom Needed

Therefore the health of our national financial structure—our economy—is of paramount importance. Even the wisest and sanest management of government's fiscal affairs will be fraught with constant dangers. To sum it up: The nearer we come to balancing the budgets, federal, state and local, whatever the cost in temporary sacrifices, the less will be the inflationary pressure and the more certain we can be of economic survival. And above all else, each citizen should serve as a committee of one to expose the disguised Socialists at work and to keep the public aware of the value of individual freedom—so we won't lose it at the end of the war emergency like England did.

REFRESHING PICKUP

For the nation's 2,000,000 Boy Scouts, summer is adventure time. On the trail, in camp or at home they're always on the go. And they enjoy ice cream anytime, as a refreshing food at mealtime and around the campfire as a pickup. According to the National Dairy Council, Boy Scouts help boost America's ice cream consumption to nearly five and a quarter billion pints a year.

Cancer Clinic

On Friday, July 28 the Wayne County Cancer Center examined 26 persons, 20 white women, 3 white men, 2 colored women and 1 colored man. All examinations were completed and 12 patients were referred to their physicians for medical attention. Four came from Calypso, 1 from Smithfield, 1 from Clinton, and the others were from Goldsboro.

THE RHYMING ROMEOS
By HORACE ELMO

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and Niacin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago... "that is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Poling says: "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL—she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat these things—I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL, I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now—and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL—and they all thank me for telling them about HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL enough."

HADACOL Can Help You, Too! — as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.

Makes Up Your Mind — to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you your money will be refunded.
