LASSITER - VINCENT VOWS SPOKEN

Miss Doris Mae Lassiter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Woodall Lassiter, of Smithfield and John Vincent of Warsaw, son of Mrs. John Wiley Vincent and the late Mr. Vincent of Greenville, were married in a candlelight ceremony at Centenary Methodist Church in Smithfield, Saturday evening, August 5th, at eight o'clock. The Rev. James A. Aman, of Four Oaks, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Palms, seven-branched candelabra bearing cathedral candles, and floor baskets of white gladioli and asters formed the setting for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur Wallace rendered a program of nuptial music with Mrs. Wallace at the organ and Mr. Wallace's vocal selections "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Harold Medlin, of Benson, wore a wedding dress of ivory satin with long train. The yoke of illusion with drop shoulders was outlined with pearls. The tiara of orange blossoms was fashioned with a two tiered fingertip veil of imported illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of Malayan Jasmine centered with a purple-throated white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Harold Medlin, sister of the bride and the maid of honor, Miss Malissa Godwin, of Kenly, wore dresses of yellow nylon marquisette with fitted bodices and full skirts over yellow taffeta. They wore matching mitts and a halo of yellow flowers and carried bouquets of lavender and purple asters tied with rainbow satin.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Lawrence A. Brown, of Kinston, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Sybil Matthews of Roseboro, were attired in nile green nylon marquisette made like the dresses of the honor attendants. They carried bouquets of Rubrum lilies tied with Better Times ribbon.

Lawrence A. Brown, of Kinston, brother-in-law of the groom was best man. Ushers were Elmer Cox, of Greenville, W. G. Britt and Charles Miller, of Warsaw and Dr. Millard Kornegay of Smithfield and Warsaw.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party received informally in the vestibule of the church.

For traveling the bride wore a white summer suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Vincent was graduated from Cleveland High School and Atlantic Christian College in Wilson. For the past three years she has been a member of the Goldsboro school faculty.

Mr. Vincent was graduated from Greenville High School before entering the armed forces. He served for five years, two of which were in the European theater of war. He is now employed with the Warsaw Furniture Company in Warsaw.
