NOTICE....

The Times regrets that the Gordon-Gaylor and Gilkerson-West weddings were received too late for this week's paper. These stories together with the pictures will appear next week. Please take note. We cannot get our Warsaw or other society news in the current issue when we receive it after Tuesday night. It takes quite some time to set up copy and get it ready for printing. Your cooperation will be appreciated. Ed.

Notice To Delinquent Taxpayers in The Town of Warsaw

I forgot to state in last week's paper that Mrs. Eula Lee Britt will be at the Town Hall every week day during the month of September from 9:00 to 12: A.M. to receive your delinquent taxes.

Three-fourths of the good citizens of the Town of Warsaw have paid their taxes and it is not right that the other one-fourth should not pay them, and the Town needs the money and I expect to see that they are paid so please pay them during the month of September.

Don't let me have to embarrass you by taking your automobile, truck, or anything else the law will allow me to take.

E. D. WILLIAMS,
TOWN TAX COLLECTOR

BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Avon Sharpe was hostess Friday evening when she entertained at eight tables of bridge at her home on College Street. Miniature marigolds, verbena and other flowers decorated the living room and den where games were held. Punch was served throughout the evening. Mrs. Sharpe was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Charles Barker of Oxford.

Each table was appointed with a miniature corsage bearing the table number. For high scoring Mrs. Ed Hines received a pair of figurines. Mrs. Sterling Marriner won a demi-tasse set for second. Mesdames Caswell Moore, Jr., and W. G. Britt were presented ash trays as bride-elect gifts.

At refreshment time the hostess assisted by her sister, served ice cream molds in flower shape and individual cakes in pink and green. A red rose in silver bud vases graced each table.

David - Phillips Wedding Rites

Miss Annie Lewellyn Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram James Phillips of Warsaw, became the bride of Redwan Edward David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. David of Fayetteville, Sunday, August 20th at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Fayetteville. Father Conner officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Palms, seven-branched candelabra bearing cathedral candles, and floor baskets of white gladioli and green fern formed the setting for the wedding. Nuptial music was rendered by Miss Jeanette Monsour of Fayetteville, soloist and the organist of St. Patrick's.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported Swiss marquisette, fashioned heart-shaped neckline, full length sleeves finished with a tiny ruffle at the wrist, and tiny satin covered buttons down the back. The snug basque bodice had a panel down the front appliqued with satin lilies of the valley and four ruffles of nylon net across the bottom. The bouffant skirt had applique of satin lilies at center back and an aisle wide train which was encircled with ruffles of net. Her fingertip veil of imported nylon illusion was topped with a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of white lilies and gladioli centered with a white gladioli leaflet corsage.

Mrs. Earl Howell was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a gown of Nile green marquisette with draped stole over the shoulder with harmonizing mitts and picture hat. She carried a nosegay of yellow asters tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Lee Jones of Warsaw, cousin of the bride, Miss Yvonne David of Fayetteville, sister of the groom; Miss Patricia Wallace of Snow Hill, Md.; and Miss Agnes Monsour of Fayetteville. Their dresses were of pastel shades of orchid and yellow organdy worn over taffeta hoop skirts. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers tied with satin ribbon and wore net headdresses to match their gowns.

Daniel David of Fayetteville, brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Randolph Phillips of Warsaw, brother of the bride; Edward David of Fayetteville, brother of the groom; Floyd Jones of Warsaw; and Edmund Monsour of Fayetteville.

Joanne Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Phillips of Seven Springs, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue organdy dress and matching net headdress and carried a white satin basket of rose petals.

Mrs. Phillips, mother of the bride, wore a rose crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

The mother of the groom wore a white crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was white gardenias.

Following the ceremony the parents of the groom entertained at a buffet supper at the Fayetteville Recreation Home.

For traveling the bride wore a white summer suit with powder blue and navy accessories and the gladioli corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. David was graduated from East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville. For the past six months she has been a member of the Stokes School Faculty.

Mr. David was graduated from Whiteville High School and East Carolina Teachers College.

After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. David will be at home in Greenville. Mrs. David will be a member of Stokes School faculty this year and Mr. David will continue study for his Master's degree at ECTC.

Cake Cutting.

On Saturday evening at 8:30 Mr. and Mrs. Mosely Phillips entertained at a cake-cutting party for the David-Phillips wedding party and immediate members of the two families at the Phillips home. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Ralph Jones of Warsaw. A handmade cut-work linen cloth covered the dining table which was centered with white asters in a crystal bowl, flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. Miss Agnes Turnage of Warsaw poured punch from a bowl appointing one end of the table. From the opposite end Mrs. Daniel David of Fayetteville served cake from a three-tiered wedding cake. Hostess slices in white, decorated with pink and green were served by Mesdames Henry Askew and Hinton Askew of Warsaw. The living room mantle held greenery and white candles in crystal candelabra while the bookcase was banked in greenery and silver candelabra.

During the evening the bridesmaids and groomsmen received attendant's gifts from the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosely Phillips said the goodbyes.
