

Present And Future Picture Of Duplin County Negro Schools

By ANNIE MAE KENION, Colored School Supervisor

A new day with a more vivid educational picture has arisen in the minds and hearts of the Negro citizens of Duplin County in regard to the present and future consolidation school building program.

The future. The Duplin County Negro Schools have as their full time Supervisor, Miss Annie Mae Kenion, who before her appointment as supervisor, was a principal and classroom teacher in Duplin County.

Little Stacie Whitfield of Mt. Olive is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Whitman. Several friends and relatives visited Mrs. Eddie Goodman and infant daughter Martha Kaye over the week end. She and Martha Kay returned from the Wayne Memo-

EDITH HINANT DICKERSON, soprano voiced soloist who sings "Yes, Indeed" and other numbers in the opening scene of "The Duplin Story". Edith hails from Fremont and this year will teach in the Warsaw schools. She made a real hit in the play last year and is expected to better her performance this year.

MAMIE TURNER, retired Negro school teacher and for years supervisor of Negro schools in Duplin. Mamie retired last year. She set a pattern that is hard to carry out in Duplin but Negro leaders in education are carrying on. Mamie is highly educated, having a number of degrees and she also has two children who are leaders in the field of education. They are both college professors.

Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Turner and son, her sister Miss Willie Stockton of Kernersville.

Little Bill Hunter of Kenly is visiting his grand father S. B. Hunter, Sr.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Culbreth Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Culbreth of Goldsboro and Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. John Snipes, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Casey and Patsy of Goldsboro.

The revival is still going on in the First Free Will Baptist Church. Claude Evans has returned from James Walker Hospital and is feeling some better.

Mrs. J. A. Baker doesn't seem to improve any. She hasn't spoken but a few times in several weeks.

The Baptist WMS met in the church Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Tucker in the chair. Miss Lizzie Edwards led the devotional with Mesdames Tucker, T. M. Rogers and L. D. Dall giving the program.

Miss Macy Cox will be glad to accept your subscription - new or renewal - for this paper.

Unknown Enemy Burns Tobacco

INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK

J. W. Kelly of Scott's Store has an enemy he knows nothing about and is anxious to learn his identity.

Last Saturday afternoon about 1:30 two young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kelly were walking from their home to their grandmother's nearby when they saw smoke pouring from an unoccupied three room tenement house. They ran to the building and gave the alarm. Help rushed to the scene and shortly the fires on piles of tobacco in the house were extinguished. Investigation revealed that gasoline or some kind of oil had been poured along the end of several piles of tobacco and fire set. Two holes were burned through the floor of the building. About half of the tobacco was destroyed. No insurance was carried. This was Mr. Kelly's entire crop of tobacco.

Bloodhounds were secured from Kenansville but were unable to detect a scent.

Ice Cream Use Up 47 Per Cent From Year 1940

Homemakers are increasingly recognizing ice cream as a significant food contribution to daily meals.

Proof lies in the fact that present annual consumption is 28 pints per person compared to 19 pints in 1940, a jump of 47 percent.

Scientists say that one average serving of ice cream gives the consumer the same amount of calcium and high quality protein as one half glass of milk. This high food value is due to the fact that 80 percent of the vanilla ice cream mix consists of milk and cream. The other 20 percent is composed of sweetening and flavor. The nutritional products of milk and cream give ice cream significant amounts of protein, calcium, vitamin A and riboflavin, all essential say scientists, for growth and developing strong bones, sound teeth, good eyes, and robust health.

Ice cream in sizable quantities should be eaten by persons low in milk consumption to be assured of nutrients needed by the body in its growing and development stage.

Magnolia News

INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK

Magnolia School opened Thursday, Aug. 17. During chapel Mr. L. H. Fussell, principal, led the devotional and discussed plans for the coming year. A number of patrons attended opening exercises. Enrollment is around 275.

Mrs. M. E. Lindsay and children have returned home after visiting in western S. C. with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lindsay Sr. and others.

Mrs. H. G. Culbreth spent Saturday in Goldsboro with her mother who has been quite ill.

Miss Martha Peterson of Goldsboro spent the week end with J. J. Peterson.

Milk is a swell midnight snack

Dad's a smart refrigerator. He reaches for milk because it's filling without being fattening. Milk keeps him alert on the job... conditions him for Sunday morning pitching with Junior's team. Try milk yourself for that toned-up feeling.

Healthy lunches built on milk

Here's a wise mom. She knows meals fortified with milk's goodness supply her family with needed vitamins and minerals. Milk enriched foods taste better... enhance finicky appetites. Try milk based meals in your home—see how the folks take to them!

We are proud to serve all White schools and most Colored schools in Duplin with our Pure Homogenized Milk.
