

READ THIS... before you decide on your profession

C. E. WEATHERBY
 C. E. Weatherby, Superintendent of the Waynesville City Schools, Waynesville, North Carolina, is the son of Mrs. Nyda Hicks Weatherby and the late C. E. Weatherby of Faison, North Carolina. He attended the Faison Elementary School and in 1924 was graduated from the Faison High School.
 Mr. Weatherby received his A. B. Degree at Duke University in 1929. While at Duke he was outstanding as a football and baseball player.
 He has been connected with the schools of Haywood County for the past twenty-one years. He went to Waynesville in 1929 as coach and director of athletics. His football teams won 181 games, lost 32 and tied 3. Two of his boys—Fred Crawford, and Bill Milner—made All-American teams while at Duke University.
 In 1938 Mr. Weatherby married Miss Emma Massie of Waynesville. They have two children, Jean and Eddy.

A. J. DICKSON
 A. J. Dickson, the son of the late Joseph Lewis Dickson and Sallie Cameron Dickson, was born in Duplin County near Calypso in 1905. Both of his parents were native Duplinites.
 He attended the public elementary and high schools of Calypso. After graduation from high school he attended the University of North Carolina and was graduated from that institution with an A. B. degree in 1928.
 Since 1924 Mr. Dickson has been connected with the Public School System of North Carolina. For five years he taught in the schools of Johnston and Northampton Counties. In 1928 he went as assistant principal in the B. F. Grady School in Duplin County. He served in this school seven years until 1935 when he became principal of the Kenansville High School. After serving in this capacity for seven years, he was elected principal of the Coates Consolidated Schools in Harnette County. This position he held until 1945 when he accepted a position with the State Board of Education as Assistant Director of the Division of Textbooks—the position he now holds.
 His family consists of his wife, the former Miss Robanna Griggs; a son, Griggs, a junior at the University of North Carolina; and Geneva Ann, a student in the school at Garner.

Drivers R. S. T. Up For Exams.

The R. S. T group of motorists makes up one of the largest which must stand examination for drivers license renewals, yet persons in this category have been very slow to make application for licenses, the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles reported.
 A glance at local telephone directories reveals the cause for the size of this group. The name Smith alone generally fills several pages. Persons with such popular names as Roberts, Rogers, Stephens (or Stevens), Taylor and Thomas fall within this category.
 Approximately 185,000 are included in the R-T group.
 Motorists who must renew their licenses can be assured of immediate attention if they go to their nearest drivers examiner within the next few weeks, but if they wait till the rush begins, they are likely to have to wait for their examination.
 Examining period for motorists whose surnames begin with R, S, T started July 1 and will continue through December 31.

Do you like children?
 Do you like to feel you're helping them develop, helping them build their lives and their futures?
Do you like facts and ideas... like to absorb them and add to your intellectual stature?
Do you like to feel you're taking part in the progress of your community, your state, your country—and the world?
Do you have imagination? Poise? Patience and understanding? Good health and normal energy?
 If you can answer "yes" to these questions, the chances are good that you have a talent for teaching.
 During the next few years, 230,000 teachers—over and above those required to fill normal vacancies—will be needed in our schools.
 There is a special need for teachers in elementary grades... and there will be an even greater need during the years ahead.
 All over the country, people are becoming more aware of the importance of good schools. The finest young people are being encouraged to enter teaching. Your place may be in this highly honored profession—look into the possibilities right away.

Like other American business firms, we believe that business has a responsibility to contribute to the public welfare. This advertisement is therefore sponsored by

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE SCHOOLS OF DUPLIN COUNTY

KRAMER'S

DEPARTMENT STORE
 IN WALLACE