Gordan - Taylor Vows Spoken

In an impressive wedding ceremony on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in the Baptist church in Warsaw Miss Sarah Victoria Gaylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Junius Gaylor of Wilmington, became the bride of Hugh Clifton Gordan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clifton Gordan of High Point. Dr. Alton W. Greenlaw performed the double ring ceremony.

The altar of the church was banked with palms, oregon fern, hemlock, and summer flowers, flanked on either side by seven-branched candelabra, holding white cathedral tapers.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Glenn C. Brown of Warsaw, organist, and Miss Edna Glenn Huffins, soloist, of Guilford, who sang "At Dawning," "My Hero," and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Fred Gaylor Jr. of Burgaw. Her white satin gown had a nylon yoke, bordered with nylon lace ruffle, tight-fitted bodice and long train, long fitted sleeves, buttoned at the wrist with satin-covered buttons and finished with lace ruffles. She wore a white satin Juliet cap with finger-tip imported veil of illusion. The bride carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid, showered with summer flowers.

Mrs. Bobby C. Gaylor of Greenville, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Mae Brock of Warsaw was maid of honor. They wore dresses of yellow net over taffeta with full hoop skirts and matching stole, and sweetheart bonnets of yellow net. They carried nosegays of mixed summer flowers tied with yellow and green ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Misses Bette Huffam of Clinton and Jean Miller of Warsaw. They wore dresses of Nile green net over taffeta also with hooped skirts and matching stoles and sweetheart bonnets with matching net.

Little Miss Sylvia Ann Wellons of Dunn was flower girl. She was dressed in a miniature gown identical to that of the bride. Billy Wellons, Jr., of Dunn was ring-bearer, carrying the rings on a satin pillow. He was dressed identically as the groom.

Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Jean Thompson, Jean Gardner, Jean Newkirk, all of Warsaw and Miss Kathryn Hunter of Wilmington.

The groom had as his best man, Pete Armstrong, of High Point. Ushers were Tommy Kellum, Albert and Jimmy Thomas of High Point and Curtis Bovender of Winston-Salem.

The bride's mother wore a gown of aqua crepe with long black lace gloves and her corsage was of red roses.

The mothers of the groom wore a blue lace gown with white lace gloves. Her corsage was of pink roses.

A reception was given immediately after the ceremony. Following the reception the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling the bride wore a light gray flannel suit with navy accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

Mrs. Gordan is a graduate of the Warsaw High School and attended leading hair stylists in the state. Her lecture and demonstration on Shaping and Styling was thoroughly enjoyed. Shedan was accompanied by Misses Jean de Weese and Barbara Spillman of Raleigh. Two new members, Kay Crumpler and Doris Smith were accepted into the Guild.
