Nation's Capital Needs Policemen

About 300 additional policemen will be needed as a result of the new law authorizing a 5-day work-week for policemen in the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., according to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, which is now accepting applications for the positions.

The entrance salary is $3,077 a year. Annual salary increases are given for five years to those men whose work is satisfactory. After 5 years of duty, the men become eligible to compete for promotion to higher-paying positions.

Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 31, must be not less than 5 feet, 7 inches tall, and must weigh at least 145 pounds. They must be in sound physical condition and free from marked deformity. They must pass a written test but no previous training or experience in police work is necessary. Persons who are appointed will be given thorough instruction in all phases of their duties. Men who wish to be considered may obtain further information and application forms from any first or second class post office or write U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Medical Bill Rises As Doctor Travels

The doctor's bill of the average rural family increases 66 cents for every mile the doctor travels, a survey in Eastern Carolina shows. It was found that 27 percent of the families lived 10 miles or more from a doctor and more than 20 miles from a hospital. Families living at these distances had about the same amount of illness as other families. The survey also showed that they used hospitals and doctors to about the same extent.

There was two important differences: the isolated families did not and frequently could not get medical service in their homes; and if they did get a doctor to make the trip, the expense was greater.

The cost of getting a doctor in the country varied with the distance the patient lived from town. The average fee for one call at the doctor's office was $2.80. The average fee for a home call in the day was $7.12, and for a home call at night, $9.35

Farmers Urged To Buy Fertilizer

Will farmers have all the fertilizer they need for fall and spring plantings?

GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. Probably not, but the chances are that someone in your family may be. There were 16,859,973 patients admitted to hospitals in 1949, a peacetime record more than 6,000,000 above the figure for 1940. An important reason for the increase is the rapid spread of hospitalization insurance, now estimated to exceed 60,000,000.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. No, it's just standard. And even with 20/20 vision you may need glasses for close work, such as reading or sewing. If you're having trouble with your vision, check with your doctor.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. They can make a lot of noise but real weeping doesn't begin until the baby is three months old, at which time the tear glands are fully developed.

Not unless they store it on their farms at once.

That is the word which comes from The National Fertilizer Association in Washington.

Although the industry is fully equipped to meet requirements, Dr. Russell Coleman, the organization's president, says that some farmers may be disappointed. Industry supplies now on hand must move steadily from plants to the farm, he explains, so as to allow space for additional fertilizer to be produced and processed.

FARMER HELPS SELF BY HELPING OTHERS

Albert Brown, Negro farmer of Rt. 1 Beulaville, has found that it pays to help others while helping himself.

According to Riddick E. Wilkins, Duplin Negro Farm Agent, Brown is a young war veteran who purchased a 15-acre farm in the Muddy Creek section in 1947. He began by erecting a small but comfortable home for his wife and child. Soon his neighbors learned to respect his leadership in farming.

Brown was one of the first to have his soil tested for liming and fertilizing recommendations. Since then, about 70% in that neighborhood have had soil tests. This Duplin farmer spends a good deal of time helping his neighbors, both adults and 4-H club members, with farm problems. He says if there is any way to get higher production from his land, he wants to find out what it is.

Announcing the Double-Duty CHRYSLER

the smart new sedan that converts in seconds into a sports car or cargo carrier.

Twice as useful as any ordinary car! Use it as a beautiful sedan seating six! Or fold down the hinged back seat and cushion... and you have a level deck 6 1/2 feet long. You can sleep on it... load all your hunting and fishing gear... haul farm implements; fence posts—a thousand and one things no regular car can carry. It's like having two cars in one. Come see how the new Chrysler Traveler makes your dollars do double duty. Take the wheel... find out how Chrysler's built-in value all the way through is combined with new utility that beats anything on the road today.

See how the rear seat cushion folds forward against the front seat back, and rear seat back turns down to form flat, level-loading platform. Spare tire can be carried in passenger compartment, or in well of right of luggage compartment.

Counter-balanced trunk lid opens easily, and stays open for easy loading. Sturdy luggage rack on roof adds conveniently to the huge carrying capacity of this car. Upholstery is tough plastic that resembles grained alligator hide.
