

Jarvis-Smith Vows

Miss Essie Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. Jones Matthew Smith and the late Mrs. Essie Ione Smith of Pink Hill, became the bride of Mr. Hallett Ward Jarvis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Jarvis, Sr., of Charleston, S. C., in a ceremony Friday, October 6th at 5 p.m. in the Duke University Chapel in Durham.

Rev. George A. Workman officiated in the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Mildred Hendrix, organist, Miss Mary Davis of Raleigh and Mr. Merritt Head of Durham were soloists.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law Mr. Roger P. Strickland of Bailey, wore a candle light length gown of bridal white chantilly lace over slipper satin, fashioned with a sheer yoke encircled by a ruffle of nylon tulle. The basque bodice buttoned up the back and was accented by the full gathered skirt.

She wore a shoulder-length veil of illusion held in place by a coronet of crushed illusion. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Her bouquet was of white starlight roses and stephanotis centered with a cattleya orchid tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Jarvis attended Watts Hospital School of Nursing and before her marriage was employed at the N. C. State School for the Blind in Raleigh.

Mr. Jarvis majored in Business Administration at Duke University and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity. He is now employed at The Varsity Men's Shop in Durham.

The bride's sister was attired in a copper brown crepe dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a golden brown velvet dress with luggage tan accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. For travel, the bride wore an admiral blue suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Howard, girls' basketball captain; Jimmy Johnson, boys' basketball captain; and Roger Hill, co-captain.
