Colonel To Head
Hospital Group

Col. A. P. Kelly, chairman of the Wilmington chapter of the American Red Cross was elected chairman of the N. C. Volunteer Camp and Hospital Council at its semi-annual meeting at Camp Lejeune recently. He succeeds W. C. Chadwick of New Bern, who served for the past three years.

Other officers chosen were Mrs. Lester Gould, Jacksonville, vice-chairman and Mrs. Fred Whitney, New Bern, secretary.

The meeting, in the form of a luncheon at the officer's club, was attended by representatives from 15 chapters. The council, organized several years ago, is concerned primarily with the welfare of patients at Lejeune and Cherry Point Marine establishments.

Plans for the coming six months were discussed and the various chapters assigned quotas of articles to be supplied for the men in the hospitals. Marine officers told delegates that between 800 and 900 men are expected to be in the hospitals by the first of 1951. Most will be casualties of the Korean War.

Captain J. F. Hooper, commanding officer at Lejeune hospital, urged support of the national mobilization program and called for a fight against Communism in every way possible.

Representatives who attended from the Duplin chapter ARC were Mrs. N. B. Boney, Executive Secretary, Mrs. Sam Newton, Production Supply Chairman, and Mrs. Dan Davis, Volunteer Worker.
