SAM BYRD

ducing such historical pageants to achieve the success that crowned last night's performance. He uses, with telling results, the emotional, which he underlines with lighting and sound effects.

Illustrative of the 16 scenes, is the Union station scene, which like all sets, is a faithful reproduction of the actual location. Sam Turtle- taub, called to duty, bids farewell to his sweetheart and as the scene reaches a climax, the incoming train appears, the headlight grows larger and the noise of the engine louder until the audience as one, spontaneously breaks into applause.

The principals, if any in the play can be called such, were Vernon Buschong, as Joseph Schuman, Hilda Howe Edwards, as his wife Anna; Patricia Bolam as Lisa, his daughter, and Mr. Byrd as Captain Valentine.

They carry the theme of the play as the displaced persons and the American officer more than adequately throughout the three-hour production.

"Those Who Live In The Sun" should be seen by all those who live in Charleston.

FREE LECTURE

liefs, and endeavor to stimulate and encourage more study of the Bible and then living according to its high principles.

This week Jehovah's witnesses are visiting many residents of Duplin County and vicinity with a personal friendly invitation for all to hear this timely Bible talk Sunday, "True Riches - How Obtained?", which is free of charge. No collections are ever taken at any of the meetings and Bible studies of Jehovah's witnesses at any time.

The teachings of Jehovah's witnesses are based entirely on both the old and new testaments of the Bible, and these do not always conform to the standard teachings of religious organizations. One difference is concerning "Hell".

Instead of "hell" being a literal everlasting burning fire; the witnesses teach that Hell is the same as the grave, which is based on the many Bible texts stating that in death, man is "asleep", "his thought perish", "The soul that sinneth it shall die", "the dead know not anything," etc. (Dan. 12:2; Psalm 146:4; Ezekiel 18:4; Eccl. 9:5,10)

Jonah was in "hell" when he was in the fish's belly, his potential grave, says Jonah 2:2. Jesus' soul "was not left in hell", being resurrected in three days states Acts 2:30,31, showing that "hell" could not have meant excruciating pain and horrible torment for our Saviour, but mere three days of sleep or death in a tomb or grave.

Further, the Witnesses do not believe that this planet, Earth, will ever be destroyed by fire or otherwise. Eccl. 1:4 states that the earth "abideth forever", and they teach that only wicked people will be burned at the "end of the world", and that the earth will then be populated by righteous persons in the future.

Mr. Miller will deliver another discourse entitled "By Their Fruits You Shall Know Them" Sunday, 8:00 p.m. Dec. 3 at the home of Blainie Harper, near Pink Hill. All are cordially invited to attend.

4-H CLUB PROGRAMS

The 4-H Clubs throughout Duplin County plan to present Christmas programs beginning Dec. 4 through the 15th.

Like oysters? Elliott Pickett is the genial proprietor and has the distinction of having the first oyster roast in this section.
