

Parades in Full Regalia October Autos Claim 119 Lives

Motor vehicle traffic accidents brought death to 119 persons during October, the highest figure for any month since 1941, the N. C. Dept. of Motor Vehicles reported. One hundred and fifty-two persons were killed in October, 1941.

October of this year listed 1,174 persons injured in 2,660 reported accidents. This marks an increase of 20 percent in injured and 16 percent in reported accidents over October, 1949.

Collisions between motor vehicles and with fixed objects and motor vehicles running off roadway accounted for most of the increase in injuries and reported accidents. Collisions of motor vehicles showed an increase of 715 as compared with October of last year. Deaths from this type of accident reached an all time high of 43 during October, 1950. Six persons were killed when their motor vehicles struck fixed objects. During the same period last year, no fatalities resulted from this type of accident. Fatalities resulting from motor vehicles running off roadway increased 26 percent over the same period of 1949.

Of the 4,547 drivers involved in accidents, 184 were driving intoxicated. Driving on the wrong side of the road accounted for 513 accidents while 397 drivers were guilty of speed violations.

During October, 23 pedestrians were killed and 103 injured in 118 accidents involving pedestrians. This is an increase of 44 percent over the corresponding month of last year when 16 pedestrians were killed.

Cities and towns reporting pedestrian fatalities were: Gatesville, one; Greensboro, one; Stoneville, one; Raleigh, two; Warrenton, one; Weldon, one, and Stantonburg, one.

The following counties reported one pedestrian fatality each: Cabarrus, Chowan, Cleveland, Duplin, Durham, Franklin, Gates, Guilford, Iredell, Mecklenburg, Orange, Pitt, Polk, Sampson, Tyrrell, Warren, Wayne and Wilson. Wake reported three and Halifax, two.

Wake had the highest number of fatalities during the month, with 12 persons killed.

The following counties reported two fatalities each: Burke, Chowan, Duplin, New Hanover, Orange, Pitt, Rowan, Rutherford, Sampson, Surry, Wayne and Wilkes.

No fatalities were reported from

Does morning mean a mad scramble for that other earring, a bracelet and those matching scarf pins? Then reorganize your bureau drawer and sort out your costume jewelry into one of those quilted and sectioned-off stocking boxes.

Apple rings filled with cranberry sauce make an attractive yet inexpensive garnish for a roast turkey. Core, pare and slice 3 apples. Fry in vitaminized margarine and a little water in a covered skillet until tender. Pile cranberry sauce in centers.

With velvet all the style, there's many a fair lady losing her fair disposition brushing lint off this material of queens. Here's a magic lint-lifter: wrap some cellophane tape, sticky side out, around your fingers and brush the velvet.

Ever wonder how to dress up lima beans? Here's the answer. Blend 1/2 cup real mayonnaise, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups milk. When thickened, add 1 teaspoon grated onion and 6 tablespoons grated cheese. Cook over low heat 10 minutes and pour over cooked limas. Serves 6-8.

According to one prominent house of perfume, fur is an excellent place to apply your favorite scent. Don't worry about damaging the fur. Spray it on with an atomizer from a foot away so that it reaches only the top hairs, not the felt itself.

If you're a lover of molded salads and gelatin desserts, look for the cupboard for pretty and handy molds. Tea cups are perfect for molding aspics; serving dishes are often ideal for ham or chicken mousse; and water goblets, sugar glasses and candy dishes mold gelatin desserts divinely.

The next time you're polishing shoes the ole shoina, try some of your leather handbags. Shiny polish comes in various colors and will touch up scratches and brighten handbags dulled from rain and wear. In addition, the wax base will protect the leather for a long shining future.

Solution for leftover egg whites: Simmer them in salted water 15 minutes. Drain and chill. Chop or rub them through a sieve and use in sandwich fillings, sprinkled in salads or as a garnish for vegetables.

The latest style for women is to wear sweaters or jersey tops with the same color as the skirt worn with them. It makes a more complete costume. Perhaps you've noticed and despised. Well, don't. With a little derring-do, a good color remover, and all purpose dye you can transform last year's style into this year's fashions.

Regular milk can be turned into sour milk by adding 2 tablespoons of vinegar per cup. Mix thoroughly and let stand a few minutes until thickened.
