

PINK HILL - GRADY-SMITH

CHURCH WOMEN

A joint meeting of the Presbyterian Women of the Church and circles with Mesdames N. P. Farrior and Earl Smith as hostesses was held at the home of Mrs. Smith Tuesday night. Mrs. T. A. Turner presided and Mrs. Morton Sills was in charge of a Christmas program. The hostesses served refreshments to the 13 attending.

SERVICES

Regular Third Sunday afternoon services will be held at the Hebrew Church at 3 p.m. Sunday. Rev. R. P. Farrior will be in charge. The public is invited.

DR. S. A. MAXWELL

Smithfield churches will join in a union service Saturday night to welcome Dr. S. A. Maxwell, new pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, so says an article in the News & Observer of Sunday, Dec. 10. Dr. Maxwell has gone a long way since those early days when he attended the old O'Daniel School taught by the late R. D. Kornegay and others, in the Albion community where he was born. Those school desks creaked under the heavy load of Sam as he went about the preparation of his lessons and occasionally, to turn around and whisper to his classmates about him. Well bright for his age, Sam must have weighed approximately 200 pounds at the age of fourteen and truly, the desks provided for the schools in those days were not equal to Sam's heavy weight. He was a good student and popular with everyone about him.

His father, the late Frank Maxwell, has passed on but his mother, Mrs. Clarissa (Jones) Maxwell still lives, with a daughter in Goldsboro. A sister Mrs. Jeff (Connie) Herring now lives near the place of their birth in Duplin County.

H. D. C. MEETS

Mrs. Willard Westbrook was hostess to a regular meeting of the B. F. Grady HDC at her home Monday afternoon with Miss Viola Westbrook presiding. Miss Hilda Clontz, home agent, was present and showed some slides on Christmas decorations. Mrs. Dempsey Smith demonstrated on family life, assisted by Mesdames Lewis Westbrook and Lehman Williams. Members exchanged gifts and gave Miss Clontz a party shower. The hostess served a salad course to approximately 30 members.

PINK HILL CLUB MEETS

Mrs. H. E. Maxwell was hostess to the Pink Hill HDC at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Leslie Quinn presided. It was the first meeting with the new home agent, Miss Rachel Harigrove in charge. The following old officers were re-elected. Mrs. Quinn, Pres.; Mrs. H. E. Maxwell, Vice Pres.; and Mrs. Nick Smith, Sec-Treas. Two shut-ins were remembered with gifts and members exchanged gifts also. The hostess served a chicken salad plate with coffee. Eleven members were present.
