 Marvin Bradshaw of Magnolia and Winifred Bradshaw of Holly Ridge; 13 grandchildren and one great grandchild. She was 68 years old, had been married 50 years in March and her children had planned to celebrate with a golden wedding jubilee but she was taken ill and they did not have it.
 We will not say to her "Farewell", but just "Good Night" until the shadows from this earth are cast -- until He gathers in His sheaves at last -- until the twilight be ever-past, "Good Night".

4-H Safety Program

Do you realize that one person is being killed every 10 hours in a highway accident in North Carolina? Do you realize that approximately every 47 minutes someone is injured? Do you realize that about every 25 minutes a highway accident occurs involving property damage?

It is with these alarming statistics in mind that the Duplin County 4-H Clubs project for January will deal with safety.
 Each school will take part in the safety program with members of the 4-H Club of each school presenting a safety skit "What Happened to You?" A map of the Duplin County road system with stars indicating all accidents in the county during the month will be placed on a bulletin board for all to see. In addition a detailed report of each accident will be made including precautions which could have

In Memory Of Mrs. Nellie Baker
 Mrs. Nellie Baker, daughter of the late Jesse King and Sophrovia Bradshaw was born Nov. 4th, 1881, was married to Joseph H. Baker March 1900. They reared a family of nine children, all are living and are Jesse Baker, Mrs. Cyrus Cavanaugh, Mrs. Hettie Wilson and Mrs. Gordon Blackburn of Magnolia, Atlas and Joseph of Norfolk, Va., Elbert of Rockville, Md., Mrs. Robert Burns of Springfield, N. J., and Alvin of the U. S. Navy.
 She was a firm Christian woman, raised all her children in the Baptist Sunday School, to which church she was a loyal member. Her health began to fail in 1949. She was ill six months in 1950 and on September 11th God called her to come up higher to her Heavenly Home, and was laid to rest in the Magnolia Cemetery, following the funeral in the Baptist church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. P. Royal and Rev. King D. Brown, pastor of the Magnolia Free Will Baptist Church.
