HONORED

Miss Faye Frazier of Burgaw and Rivers D. Johnson, Jr. of Warsaw, whose marriage took place Sunday, Dec. 24th in Burgaw, were complimented at a bridge party Wednesday evening prior to the wedding, when Mrs. Joyce Burton entertained in their honor. The home was beautifully decorated. A silver Christmas tree ornamented the table in the living room where the game was held.

Upon arrival the hostess presented Miss Frazier with a corsage of white carnations and Mr. Johnson boutonniere. Miss Frazier received silver in her chosen pattern and also won high score among ladies, for which the prize was perfume. Mitchell Britt was recipient of high among men and received a chef's apron.

During the game candy and stuffed dates were passed. When scores were tallied guests were invited into the dining room which was decorated in red and silver. From an embroidered linen and lace covered table ham biscuits, sandwiches, cakes, mints and nuts were served. Mrs. Otis Carroll served egg nog and Mrs. Burton coffee. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Britt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bolick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheffield, Lee Brown, Henry Stevens, Miss Helen Brown, John A. Johnson and the honored couple.

ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Y. L. Smith entertained her bridge club Thursday evening at a Christmas party at her home. When guests arrived each received a tally with a Xmas corsage attached. Greenery and poinsettias decorated the home.

A kitchen gadget was won by Mrs. Arthur Cooke for high score. Mrs. Robert Lewis received earrings for traveling, and low score prize, dish towels, went to Mrs. Milford Quinn.

Coca cola and nuts were passed and at conclusion ice cream in tree and Santa molds, with cake and Russian tea were served.

STRAUGHAN - HUNTER VOWS SPOKEN

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 24, at five o'clock in the Methodist parsonage in Warsaw Miss Sarah Louise Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Hunter of Warsaw became the bride of Perry James Straughan of Warsaw, son of Vander Straughan of Clinton. The Rev. R. L. Crossno officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride and groom were unattended. She wore a brown gabardine suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will make their home in Warsaw.

The bride is a graduate of Warsaw High School and is now employed by Warsaw Drug Co. The groom graduated from Roseboro High School and is now associated with the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Construction Co. in Warsaw.

TEACHEY - FUSSELL VOWS SPOKEN

The wedding of Miss Alice Cebrown Fussell, daughter of W. E. Fussell and the late Mrs. Fussell of Warsaw to D. Byron Teachey, of Rose Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Teachey of Charity, was solemnized Friday afternoon at five o'clock in the Baptist parsonage in Warsaw. The Rev. A. W. Greenlaw performed the marriage rites using the single ring ceremony.

Decorations were in the Christmas motif and soft candlelight. The bride was unattended and only close friends and relatives were present.

For her wedding the bride chose a beige and rust crepe dress with brown accessories. Her bridal corsage was of yellow roses. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. Teachey is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College. Mr. Teachey is a graduate of Wake Forest College and is a member of the faculty of the Rose Hill School. They will make their home in Rose Hill.

Attending the wedding were W. E. Fussell, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Mitchner, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fulford, Mrs. Maurice Jordan, and Mrs. W. D. Fussell of Greensboro.

XMAS PARTY

On Thursday evening Mrs. Avon Sharpe entertained at a Christmas Party for her associates of the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Co. of Warsaw. Twenty-five operators called during the evening. The Sharpe home where the party took place was decorated in keeping with the Christmas season. Gifts were placed under a tree in the living room and presented later. In the dining room candles and a miniature tree decorated the table from which silla-bub and fruit cake were served.
