Pink Hill Veterans Get Farming Award

Veteran trainees of Pink Hill High School's vocational agriculture department have received a 350 award offered by Tide Water Power Company of Wilmington.

The award, presented at a barbeque supper for the veterans and their wives held in the cafeteria of the high school, was presented for having the most veterans of the 13-county district turn in a "Better Farming for Better Living" book.

N. B. Chestnut, district supervisor for vocational agriculture was the speaker, with John E. Johnson, Pink Hill agriculture teacher, as master of ceremonies. He made reports on outstanding veterans and their programs.

Mozart Junior Music Club

Meeting was called to order by president, Miss Helen Waller. The minutes were read and approved. After the business session the meeting was turned over to the program chairman. The club sang "Joy To The World", accompanied by Patsy Kelly.

The following pupils played piano selections: Patricia Herring, Helen Waller, Mary Wallace, Ann Houston, Shelby Smith, Betty Sutton, and Rose Herring. Josephine and Rubylene Waters sang "Just a Mother, Bless Your Heart."

Patricia Quinn and Ryan Smith received prizes for most outstanding playing.

At the close of the program the club sang carols, accompanied by Mrs. Byrd.

Reported by: Marilyn Stroud.
