Recalled Sgt. Made Captain

Capt. James T. Stroud, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Stroud of Pink Hill, having returned from Korea where he was a member of the 314th Combat Cargo Wing of the Far East Air Force Combat Cargo Command, has been recalled from the enlisted grade of master sergeant to active duty as a captain in the United States Air Force. It was announced today by Col. N. H. Van Sickle, Wing Base Commander at Sewart Air Force Base. Prior to his recall, Captain Stroud was first sergeant for the 5th Troop Carrier Squadron at Sewart. In August of last year he went with the Squadron in that capacity when it was placed on temporary duty with the Combat Cargo Command to set up the Korean airlift. Captain Stroud, who is married to the former Adeline Winkler of Green Bay, Wis., has been reassigned to Lawson Air Force Base where he will perform duties of a classification and assignment officer.

Completes Course At Law School

Mr. John Harvey Turner of Pink Hill has recently completed his course in law at the University of North Carolina and will receive his diploma with the graduating class in the closing exercises this spring. Mr. Turner is a son of Mrs. Helen Turner and the late Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Turner of Pink Hill.

V. F. W. Enjoys Bar B Q Supper

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the Willard Smith post No. 954 served a barbecue chicken supper at the hut on Saturday night. Dancing was enjoyed following the feast. Proceeds from the approximately 150 plates sold benefited a VFW cause. Mr. Geo. Turner is commander of the post.

On Dean's List

Making the Deans list at the University of N. C. last quarter was Robert L. Summerlin of Summerlin's Cross Roads. He is the son of Mrs. R. L. Summerlin and the late Mr. Summerlin of Mt. Olive, Rt. 2. The young man has been accepted as one of the few for enrollment in the Medical School at U. N. C.

Stock Show Entries Given

There is plenty of activity for the top Grand Champion Steer in the 11th annual Coastal Plains Fat Stock Show which is to be held in Kinston April 11th and 12th. 4-Hers who will have entries from the Pink Hill School District will be Franklin and Clifton Tyndall (with two steers each), Mack Harper and Mancel Mivoslaw, son of a displaced family who live on the Harper farm.

Honors Wife On Birthday

Mr. Egbert Grady of Pink Hill entertained his wife on her birthday, Sunday, Jan. 28, at their home. The home was decorated throughout with an arrangement of early spring flowers. A turkey dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter and sons Joseph and Bobby of Kinston, Mrs. W. D. Clifton, Paul Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Clifton and family of Paison, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kornegay, Sr., and H. B. Jr. of Calypso, Mr. and Mrs. Deems H. Clifton of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomas and daughter of Elizabethtown, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murray and Joe III of Durham Miss Connie Murray of Durham and Salem College.

Mrs. Grady was showered with lovely and useful gifts. The event was outstanding by the renewing of old friendships of bygone days of Mrs. Clifton and Mesdames Thad and Leslie Turner. This is the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Kornegay of Kinstonville. Time has not weakened family ties. Much merriment and happiness is always evident at these get-togethers.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady are newcomers to Pink Hill and they are well pleased at the friendly and courteous ways they have been re-
