"DRIVE-IN" CULTIVATORS FOR CA AND WD TRACTORS

Here's the simplest way of front mounting cultivators you've ever seen.

Cultivator stands upright on floor or ground. Tractor drives into the frame. Hinged cultivator support arms swing in and fasten with two bolts. Hydraulic lift and depth control are quickly coupled.

Rear furrowing bar is also self-supporting and quick-hitch. Within a few minutes you're ready for the field.

CA and WD cultivators set a new standard of convenience. Stop in and try it for yourself.

Pink Hill Man Gets Recognition

Mr. W. H. Jones was in Kinston Tuesday night where, with his assistant Mr. L. B. Jenkins of the Jenkins-Jones Motor Company, he attended a dinner at Hotel Kinston at which time the company received an award honoring it as a "four-letter dealer" of the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company. They were presented a plaque by Emerson Planck, manager of the Norfolk division of the firm. It read as follows: "This is to certify that for the year 1930 Jenkins-Jones Motor Company has qualified as a Four Letter Dealer of the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company. Finances - Sound Management - Efficient Spirit - Always Competitive - Facilities Completely Modern." It was signed by several officials of Ford Motor Co.

Egbert Davis Is Fatally Injured

Egbert Davis, 53, of near Moss Hill in Lenoir County, died in a Kinston hospital from shock about 9:15 p.m. Sunday after being hit by a motorcycle while walking across the road in front of his home shortly after noon.

Operating the motorcycle was Edward W. Holmes, 35, of Mount Olive, Rt. 1.

A car in which Davis was riding stopped in front of his home about two miles west of Moss Hill on highway 55 on the right side of the road. He got out and walked from behind the car into the path of the motorcycle, which was coming in the opposite direction. Holmes said he did not see Davis in time to avoid hitting him.

Holmes was thrown from the motorcycle but was not badly hurt. Davis suffered compound fractures of both arms and legs and other injuries. Hospital attendants listed the cause of death as shock.

Davis was a son of Mrs. Effie Hardy Davis and the late William M. Davis of Moss Hill. He was a member of Holy Innocents Episcopal Church and the Woodmen of the World.

The funeral was held from Garner's Funeral Home in Kinston at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday with interment in the family cemetery at Union Baptist Church near Moss Hill. Rev. Jack Rountree, rector of Holy Innocents Church officiated, assisted by Rev. Clifton Rice, Kinston Free Will Baptist minister.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Naomi Tyndall Davis of the home; three sons, Edward E. Davis of Seven Springs, L. Vernon and William H. Davis of the home; one daughter, Mrs. L. F. Hester of Hope Mills; six grandchildren; four brothers, W. Loftin Davis of Kinston, E. R. James A., and Robert Moseley Davis of the Moss Hill section; three sisters, Mrs. Jack Whitfield, Mrs. Paul Jones and Miss Julia K. Davis, all of Moss Hill.

Mr. Davis has wide family connections in Pink Hill and Duplin County.

Presbyterian Women Meet

Mrs. Levi Everett was hostess to a general meeting of the Presbyterian Women of the Church at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. E. M. Sills presided. Officers to serve for the new year were voted in and other matters closing out the old year were dispensed with. Mrs. Aubrey Turner was in charge of the program. One new member was added to the roll. Twenty members were present. The hostess served apple pie topped with ice cream.

Wheat Swamp Wins

It was a sad ending to the perfect record of the Pink Hill girls basketball team when they lost to the Wheat Swamp girls in the final round of the Lenoir County Tournament held at Pink Hill the latter half of last week. The Pink Hill girls had won every county game up until Saturday night when they met Wheat Swamp and were defeated by a narrow margin.

Lumber Company Is Expanding

Wrenn Bros. Lumber Co. of Siler City, N. C. who already have one lumber mill operating on the Kinston road a mile out of Pink Hill, started Monday installing machinery for another of about the same capacity adjacent to the one already in operation. Manager Seth B. King says that timber purchases so far, have been very satisfactory and that he sees no reason why the firm can't operate in the vicinity for a good many years to come. Much of the lumber is sold on the yard and a great deal is shipped back to the Siler City plant.

Bridge Luncheon
