Chinquapin Chats

BY: VIDA MILLOY

Did you ever try making 32 pieces of cake out of a 28-piece size cake? Well it happened last week out at the Chinquapin High School yard where Mrs. Roy Smith helped the teacher celebrate her daughter Janice's birthday, along with a group of her little friends and classmates. Her teacher, Mrs.

Little, and Mrs. Smith served lemonade, fruit mixes and assorted lolly-pops! Here's hoping little Miss Janice will enjoy many happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker and children, Brenda K. and son Jerome, visited with friends in Wilmington over the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Mollie Brinkley is recuperating nicely after a sudden attack of pneumonia recently. Mrs. Brinkley is to be commended for her determination to recover any illness that comes her way—much to her own good and the wishes of her friends.

Mrs. Hugh Heath and a son, Hugh, of Kinston were visitors in town last Thursday with Mrs. W. B. Ward, Mrs. T. F. Sanderson and a son, Dr. H. E. Heath here.

Mr. Lee Maready has returned from the Hospital assuring everyone he is very much alive—as it had been reported he was dead several times. First dead then alive.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Murrell of Raleigh, Miss Elva Graham of Mount Olive, children of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Graham, spent sometime at home with them this week-end.

Mr. Jimmie Southerland, scholar of Barber school in Durham, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Floyd Judge was seen in town a few hours lately dodging reporters . . . due to the fact he is very shy of—gossip!

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Page attended the V. F. W. meeting at little Washington Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quinn visited Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Quinn, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Sadie Doris Smith has returned home after visiting relatives in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Smith, Jr. and baby spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Smith, Sr.

Miss Ardeth Smith student nurse of Rocky Mount spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith.

Mrs. Turzie Sheppard spent the weekend with Mrs. Johnnie Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenton Smith and son spent the weekend in Deep Run with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Smith and boys visited Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Jackson Sunday afternoon.

A number of men from this community went on a fishing trip Saturday near Wilmington.

Carmen Turner, Jr. who is stationed with the Navy in Texas is on a 15 day furlough visiting Mrs. Bertha Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Smith and Bertha Kay visited Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stroud Sunday afternoon.

The B. F. Grady seniors went to Greenville on Friday which was Senior Day. Every one enjoyed the trip very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stroud and children of Washington, D. C. visited Mrs. Bertha Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith here this week.

Mr. H. W. Stroud of Milwaukee, Wis. visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith Wednesday night.

Miss Wilma Gray Smith and Gary visited Mrs. Bertha Smith and family Sunday afternoon.

check-up. He is expected home in a few days, however.

Mr. Rodolph Morton and daughter, Eisle, spent last Friday in Jacksonville visiting with his father, Mr. W. F. Morton, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, but is improving.

An ice cream supper sponsored last week out at the lunch room by the Beta Club, was an encouraging turn-out for the benefit of the expenses of the coming trip of the Beta members to the State Convention at Asheville April 19th to the 21st. Good luck to you youngsters!

Twenty-seven of the C.H.S. senior class made a trip to Greenville High School Day last Friday, chaperoned by seven adults, getting a glimpse of what college life would mean to those hoping to go later. The ROTC gave a campus parade before 3,000 spectators visit for the day from over 20 adjoining counties. The College band and Glee club led in musical entertainment. A welcoming address by the College Professor, and several other speakers were enjoyed during the day, beside a barbecue dinner being served.

Mr. H. W. Stroud of Milwaukee, Wis. visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith Wednesday night.

Miss Wilma Gray Smith and Gary visited Mrs. Bertha Smith and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. I. L. Sanderson and Mrs. Jane Brown of Deep Bottom, visiting her, were visiting the rehearsals of the "Whirlpool" recently. No comment yet. One thing they said they wanted to come back. Ummm! Must have been interesting! We hope.

Mr. Hebern Wilkins, a well known resident, has been in ill health recently and unable to be to his work-shop where his absence is felt more than he can imagine. We all hope he will be out and well again soon.

Mr. "Roe" Bradham is a patient in a Wilmington Hospital for a kind heart and great love. A case of true-dog-love has proven that in Chinquapin recently! Mrs. Jimmie Southerland had to take her pet to a Veterinarian in Clinton recently; Mrs. Cora J. Southerland has a pet dog, brother to Mrs. Southerland's dog. Both ladies brooding over the illness of their pets took both dogs—the sick one, and "Browlie" to keep Mrs. Southerland company. Now if that isn't "puppy love", what is it? How are they now? Fine. No, it wasn't a case of love-sickness! Probably it was mumps!

Secrets of Successful Salads!

Salads should always be served crisp and cool. Put in the refrigerator until ready to serve. You'll find the stuffed tomato salad recipe below especially good.

It takes a good dressing to make a good salad. Millions of women prefer Ann Page Salad Dressing. It's rich with salad oil and egg yolks. Mildly tart—such delicious, distinctive flavor! Ann Page Salad Dressing is sold only at A.A.P.

TOMATO TREASURES: Remove tops from 6 firm tomatoes; scoop out part of pulp; invert to drain. Combine 1/2 cup each of chopped celery and carrots; 1/2 green pepper, chopped; 2 tps. chopped onion, 1/4 cup Ann Page Salad Dressing. Sprinkle tomatoes with salt; fill with mixture. Serve on salad greens. Top with Ann Page Salad Dressing. Garnish with radishes and stuffed olives. 6 servings.
